EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

A CREW OF MEN AT WORK ON SMITH'S NEW RAILWAY

Operations Begun This Morning Regardless of the Injunction Proceedings Now Pending.

PROPOSED TO RUSH ITS COMPLETION

A large force of men were put to work this morning on the street railway of C. A. Smith and his associates at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and East Fifth street. The workmen have made considerable progress, and from present indications there will be no delay. The company has secured the consent of a great majority of the property owners on East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, and no trouble is anticipated from that source.

Mr. Smith was seen at noon today and said:

"We are simply going ahead with the work in accordance with the franchise granted to our company by the city. There has been no change of plans nor alteration in the original intentions. We have the materials and equipment on the ground, and will push the work to completion as rapidly as possible. As far as the suit now pending in court is concerned, no attention whatever is being paid to it nor is the prospect for an adverse decision causing us the least anxiety."

"The application for an injunction has been made, but until it has been heard and a decision rendered we will proceed with the building of the road. The rails, ties and some of the other equipment have been delivered, and it was the intention to begin when these preliminaries had been arranged, so that the threatened injunction has not delayed the task in hand a single hour. Unless enjoined or prevented from so doing by unforeseen difficulties, there will be no cessation of active operations until the line is entirely completed and in actual operation."

Mr. Smith appeared to be in dead earnest and was not in the least concerned as to the outcome of the proceedings of the property owners in the vicinity of East Fifth street. According to the franchise the board of public service could not do otherwise than to give its consent to open the street. The force now at work will be increased as fast as the progress of the work will permit, and it is confidently expected that the road will be completed to the East End within a short time.

SALOON KEEPERS ARE SUBPOENAED

Several East Liverpool Men Cited to Appear Before Common Pleas Court.

THE GRAND JURY'S WORK

The prediction made by the knowing ones, and the fear expressed by the saloon men themselves that the special grand jury would have to do with the liquor business and very little else, has been fully realized. Six East Liverpool saloonists have been summoned to appear before the court of common pleas at Lisbon to answer to charges of various kinds, all of which are more or less serious.

Since the new administration took hold of the affairs of this city, there have been many alleged violations. In a few instances the offenders were prosecuted under the city ordinances, but only where it was certain a conviction could be secured. Where it appeared there was any doubt that the charges could be substantiated, the matters were turned over to the prosecutor to be brought to the attention of the grand jury. A number of witnesses were before the latter body yesterday from this city, and while the majority were said to be men who were slated as habituals, there were a few minors among the number. There seemed to be a disposition on the part of the grand jury to look into the alleged violation of the Sunday liquor laws in East Liverpool, and that the effort was successful is known in at least one case. Michael Cloran and his son were indicted for Sunday selling, and will probably go with the others today.

Cal Bowers and his bartender, Tom Davis and wife, Jack Robinson and wife, Cornelius Smith, Ben Schar, John Johannes, all of this city, have been summoned to appear before the common pleas court at 1 o'clock today. Deputy W. C. Powell served the papers early this morning, and the parties left immediately for the county seat.

Johannes is, or was, the janitor of the Turner hall, and at the last municipal election, is alleged to have furnished liquor to some of the election officers. One of the voting precincts was located in the hall, and the officers on duty there were right in the building all day. It has been stated by members of the Turner society that if the janitor did furnish or sell intoxicants on that day he did so without authority from the society, and it is just possible that he may be left to fight the case on whatever charge the grand jury has found, in his own behalf without the aid of the society.

REPORTS THE HOLDUP TO THE POLICE OFFICERS

A Traveling Man Was the Victim of Attempted Highway Robbery.

It was learned last evening that the man who was held up at the west end extension of Fourth street Tuesday night at about 10:30 o'clock, the report of which was published exclusively in the News Review, was Irving B. Lovett, a traveling man, who makes a monthly visit to the city. He reported the affair at the city hall and was much exercised over it.

The thugs that accosted him failed to get anything from him, but they were only defeated by the sprinting ability of Lovett. While they were talking to him he took advantage of the opportunity that was presented and took to his heels. He gives the same description of the men as was detailed in the News Review. The officers as yet have been unable to locate the highwaymen.

CONTESTED WILL IS SUSTAINED

Decision of Judge Hole Makes Valid a Paper Disposing of $20,000.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—The contested will case from Columbiana in which William Hizey et al were the plaintiffs against Alice B. Nise et al was called yesterday afternoon, and was quickly concluded. Judge Hole instructed the jury to find for the defendant, sustaining the will.

In this case the plaintiffs, as interested grandchildren of the late Matthias Nolt, of Columbiana, brought suit to set aside the will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind and undue influence was brought to bear on him. When the case was called none of the plaintiffs appeared and the defendants submitted the will, showing it to have been probated. The estate is valued at about $20,000.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—Mary Massey, of East Liverpool, has been authorized to adopt as her children, Laura and Mary Massey, minor daughters of Fletcher Massey, who has given his written consent to the adoption.

FEES OF AUDITORS ARE RESTRICTED

They Are Only Entitled to Four Per Cent on Taxes They Discover Unpaid.

Columbus, June 25.—(Special.)—Attorney General Sheets has rendered an opinion to Prosecutor W. R. Alban, of Jefferson county, that the auditor of that county is not entitled to four per cent penalty for additions made to the tax duplicate by the board of equalization, nor is he entitled to that percentage for the listing of property omitted by mistake. He may only receive the four per cent fee when he by his own diligence discovers and places on the duplicate property which tax dodgers seek to escape payment on.

This opinion applies to all county auditors.

THE GRAND JURY DID QUICK WORK

In Two Days Investigated 42 Cases and Found 36 Indictments.

SOME OF CHARGES MADE

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—The special grand jury finished its work and made its report to the court yesterday afternoon, after having been in session less than two days. The report follows:

"This special grand jury was empaneled on Tuesday, June 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., and after instructions from the court, commenced the investigation of cases presented.

"We investigated 42 cases, examined 57 witnesses and found 36 indictments."

William Morron, foreman, signed the report.

Among the indictments returned were the following:

Edward Duncan, Washington township, horse stealing.

Daniel Davis, Salem, selling liquor to a habitual drunkard.

SHANTYTOWN WAS MUCH TROUBLED

Two Policemen and Three Officers Made a Search of Boats, Looking For Stolen Plunder.

Excitement reigned in the shanty boat districts last night when two policemen and three detectives in the employ of the C. & P. Railroad company scoured the beach and several of the boats in search of several hundred dollars worth of plunder that has been stolen during the past few weeks.

As reported exclusively in the News Review on Monday a box car on a siding near the passenger depot was entered the latter part of last week and at least 20 bottles of Overholt whisky stolen and carried away. Of late more stealing of this nature has been carried on than for several years. The railroad detectives have been notified on every occasion and though they have discovered a few clues they have never been able to track the guilty parties successfully.

Besides breaking into freight cars the thieves have been systematically stealing pieces of iron from the railroad, and one night not long since they succeeded in getting away with nearly 1,000 pounds of valuable iron castings and other material. Thefts of gas pipes and brass from numerous

ROUGH TREATMENT FOR J. C. WALSH

The East Liverpool Democrat Was Pummelled a Good Deal By Party Brethren.

HARD TO KEEP ORDER

Energetic Work on the Part of Sergeants-at-Arms Finally Restored Peace After a Disgraceful, Rough and Tumble Fight.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—The attempt of J. C. Walsh, of East Liverpool, a defeated aspirant for the nomination for representative, to turn the Democratic county convention into a Punch and Judy show yesterday, was a deplorable and disgraceful affair, which is now regretted perhaps by no one more than Walsh himself.

When the vote on candidates was announced in which it was shown that Walsh had been defeated, he got the floor and began a tirade in which he wanted to know whether the gathering was a Democratic, Mugwump, Republican or Prohibition convention. He was interrupted by T. S. Arnold, of Leetonia, who raised the point that Walsh was not an accredited delegate and not entitled to a hearing. Walsh was denied the privilege of the floor, but he continued to interrupt until W. H. Spence was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and succeeded in quieting Walsh. Later, owing to a further interruption from Walsh, the convention was compelled to suspend proceedings in confusion.

Chairman Aten called for assistant sergeants-at-arms to eject the disturber. Two pairs of strong arms finally laid hold of Walsh and started for the door with him, almost tearing away the probate bar rail.

In a moment the men were struggling on the floor and blows were struck that threatened to involve other members of the convention. Walsh was permitted to regain his feet and after a terrific struggle was forced out of the door and into the corridor, where the struggle continued until Hon. Al. Carlile, Sheriff Leonard and others succeeded in restoring quiet, and Walsh was led away bleeding slightly about the face and neck.

While the convention was regaining its equilibrium, a prominent East Liverpool delegate made remarks derogatory to Walsh and a few of his friends, saying they represented an element which had been a mill stone about the neck of the party in that city.

After the excitement had died down the convention finished its business expeditiously, a full report of which was given in yesterday's News Review, in conclusion extending a vote of thanks to the sergeant-at-arms for preserving order.

After adjournment the county central committee organized by electing as chairman W. J. Foley, of East Palestine. Chairman Foley is empowered to select a secretary and treasurer.

For the first time in 28 years Editor W. S. Potts, of the Patriot, was unable to attend the convention yesterday afternoon, being occupied with a case in court.

WATER SHUT OFF

From the Homes of Delinquent Patrons of This City Department.

The officials of the city water works have ordered the water to be shut off at the homes of the delinquent renters. Quite a number were served thus yesterday and a few today.

Clerk Gipper states that the number of delinquents is much less than usual and that he thinks all of them will be around and settle their bills before the end of the week.

AN ANGRY ITALIAN

FOUGHT VICIOUSLY

Tried to Kill Officials of the Construction Company by Shooting Them.

TAKEN AFTER A STRUGGLE

The little hamlet of Industry was again the scene of a wild west production last evening. And as in the numerous exciting melees that have occurred there of late, the employees of Sims & Co., railroad contractors, were the principals. As the result of last night's affray an Italian boss by the name of Patrick Calsamo is in the Beaver jail and at least a score of his brethren are nursing badly bruised heads.

It was pay day for the employees yesterday, and because the paymaster of the construction company would not send Calsamo's stipend from this city to him at Industry he became terribly enraged, and early in the evening, when Supt. Bernard Patton, J. J. Dugan and Timekeeper R. S. Ovelman, who had gone from the local office on Second street, met him near his shanty in Industry, he was in a fit of madness and made a vicious assault on the gentlemen. He cried out that he wanted his money and that he would kill the men if they did not produce it. The trio were fearless and ordered him to seek other quarters.

Instead of complying with the command the angered son of Italy showed fight. He pulled from a hip pocket a big revolver and when not more than 10 yards from Superintendent Patton aimed it at him and fired twice in rapid succession. Luckily for Mr. Patton, the aim was erring and the bullets flew wide of their mark. The trio of officials began to realize the dangerous predicament they were in and commenced to make preparations for defense. Hardly had the pistol shots sounded until the spot was black with Italians, the number being estimated at about 100, and all were excitedly running to and fro, making wild gestures and threats.

After the performance had been on in full blast for possibly three minutes a score or more of the foreigners made a rush at the American gentlemen and the melee that followed was the picture of a riot scene. Finally the Italians were subdued, some of them receiving hard cracks on the head and not a few of them being felled.

Constable Finley Mason was attracted to the scene and was advised to arrest Calsamo. He was game and started in on the undertaking but met with considerable difficulty and had not other Americans assisted him he would have been solely at the mercy of the Italians. He succeeded at last in getting the man under control and accompanied by a half dozen Americans escorted him to the jail at Beaver.

Messrs. Patton, Dugan and Ovelman declare that it was the most exciting time of their lives and consider themselves very fortunate at escaping unharmed. A charge of shooting with intent to kill has been preferred against Calsamo.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING A LARGE CITY BUILDING WHERE FIRE STATION IS

The Advocates of the Scheme Say the Structure Would Pay For Itself In Time.

Since the proposition was offered and practically agreed upon to add improvements, the cost of which would aggregate nearly $3,000, to the city hall, the question of the propriety of such a move has been given considerable attention by several conservative business men and they have agreed that the improvements should not be made to the building; instead that a new building, commodious, substantial and up to date in every particular should be erected.

In conversation with one of these gentlemen this morning a reporter of the News Review gleaned the well based ideas of the new proposition and it is urged that the city council and the remaining officials of the city give them due consideration before taking definite action on the plan over which they have labored since it was proposed.

That the present city hall is a disgrace to the Crockery City everyone will agree. There is not a city in the state of the same size that is suffered to bear the harsh criticisms that falls to East Liverpool because of its miserable looking municipal building. The city has grown remarkably fast during the last few years and will continue to advance. Its residents deserve something better than the disgraceful structure situated at the corner of Third and Market streets. The officials of such a thriving city deserve better quarters. They should have them and it is claimed it will be the practice of economy to make the provision.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—In the Democratic county convention yesterday resolutions were passed declaring the necessity of self government; deploring the tendency to depart from a purely democratic government and to place political power in the hands of a plutocratic class as alarming; expressing fears that the foundation of the government is being undermined; alleging that organized wealth reaches into the public treasury and the people's funds are stolen, in high and low places, in sums both large and small; suggesting as a remedy for alleged evils that the masses be moved by honesty; that a wandering from American soil and an aping after royalty fill Americans with disgust and fear; quoting against entangling foreign alliances; danger in refusing to let the constitution follow the flag; the only safety to elect honest and economical men to office and require a strict accounting; mourning increasing tax burdens; demanding honesty and economy in county affairs; closing with an expression of pride in Sheriff Leonard and a eulogy for him.

"Raze the central fire station," argues the financier. "Though it is in better condition than the city hall, it is nevertheless a disgrace to the city. Erect in its stead a brick and stone structure of five or six stories. The cost may come close to $50,000, but even if it does it will be the means of saving the city thousands of dollars of unnecessary expense and in the end the building will pay for itself. In the building provide for a jail, a clean, respectable one. Make a place for an up-to-date fire station. Both of these can be arranged on the first floor and they will be proudly taken care of by those appointed for that work."

News and Notes About The Potteries

DO NOT BELIEVE HIM DEAD.

Strange stories are said to be afloat in Tiffin over the death and funeral of the late Colonel Albert Brewer, pottery manufacturer, who passed away suddenly at his home several weeks ago. These stories are to the effect that there are some people who do not believe that Brewer is dead. It is declared he was seen on the streets the night of the day preceding the one of his death, and some who attended the obsequies, which were quite exclusive, are reported as having said that the face in the casket was much unlike that of the man it purported to be. At the time of his death, it will be recalled, a charge of manslaughter was resting over Brewer's head. While there are some credulous enough to attach some importance to the rumors, friends of the family denounce the whole story as a cruel hoax. The remains were taken to Trenton, N. J., for interment, the birthplace of the deceased.

AGAINST LABOR DAY PARADE.

The question of whether or not there will be a parade in East Liverpool on Labor day has been brought before several of the Brotherhood locals since the last meeting of Trades Council, and as was expected the potterers are in favor of doing away with the feature. This feeling is not unanimous, however, and it is just possible that there will be enough locals outside the pottery industry to carry the question in favor of a parade. The unionists who favor having a parade as usual are enthusiastic in their support of the move, and will not give it up until it is proved beyond a doubt that the other side have the most votes.

NEW PLANT.

The Mannington plant of the Cameron pottery concern is nearing completion, and the machinery will be installed as soon as a Bucyrus machine company has completed the order. This is the second pottery of Benedum Bros. The Mannington plant is modeled after the fashion of the factor at Cameron. The present unsteady condition of the industry in general has not discouraged the West Virginia capitalists.

THE KEYSTONE BUSY.

The new double decorating kiln of the Keystone Pottery company, of New Brighton, Pa., is completed, and the bisque kiln will be finished by July 1. Manager Risby says the plant has been a most pronounced success in every particular. Orders coming in this late in the season are keeping it busy.

TRYING TO GET TOGETHER.

Dippers' union No. 41, at its latest meeting, discussed the labor trouble at the Glasgow pottery of the John Moses & Sons company at Trenton. A committee was appointed to confer with the firm and endeavor to adjust the difficulty. The conference will take place in a day or two.

RESUME JULY 7.

Work in most of the departments in the East End potteries will be brought to a close tonight until after July 4. The employees have all been notified to return to work on the seventh and eighth of July and all feel confident of a steady run of work after the resumption.

LYNCHERS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Fails to Reveal Identity of Leaders of Mob.

CORWELL RELEASED ON BAIL

Will Be Given Further Hearing—Belief Prevails That No One Will Be Punished for Deed—Mystery Surrounds Shooting of Peter Smith.

Wilmington, Del., June 25.—Arthur Corwell, who claims his home is in Hartford City, Ind., and who was arrested on the charge of complicity in the burning to death of George White, the negro assailant and murderer of Helen Bishop, was released on $5,000 bail. He will be given a further hearing.

Popular feeling in the tragedy of Monday night has not yet entirely disappeared. About 2,000 persons gathered in front of the city hall, where Corwell was confined, and made a demonstration. Extra police were on duty within the police station, and all officials were on hand in case of trouble. The crowd committed no overt act, however, beyond making a great noise. There were loud cries for the release of Corwell, to which the police paid no attention.

The verdict of the coroner's inquest did not implicate Corwell and the authorities decided to release him on $5,000 bail. This was furnished by Thomas McHugh, a wholesale liquor dealer. Word of this action soon reached the crowd and a great cheer was sent up, after which the people quickly dispersed.

When the inquest began the remains of White could not be found, and after a long search they were found wrapped in paper on an ice chest. White weighed about 200 pounds, but only five pounds of flesh and bone were left of him after the lynchers had concluded their work. The jury brought in the following verdict:

"Resolved, That George White came to his death between the hours of 10 p. m. of June 22, 1903, and 4 a. m. of June 23, 1903, by being burned in a field adjoining the road leading from Price's corner to the Ferris industrial school, by a party or parties unknown to this jury."

What the next step of the authorities will be is not known. The coroner's inquest having failed to reveal the identity of the leaders in the lynching, it is thought that the authorities are unable to proceed. Corwell declares he is innocent and says he can prove that he was not at the lynching.

The belief is growing here that no one will ever be punished for the work of the mob. Certain prominent citizens, although they deplore the occurrence, stand ready to raise a fund for the defense of any one who should be prosecuted for the offense.

Peter Smith, the boy who was shot while the mob was in the workhouse on Monday night, died as a result of his injuries. The boy was an Italian; who shot him no one seems to know. The jail guards are positive that he was not wounded by one of their number, claiming that they fired over the heads of the crowd. The jail officials think he was shot by some one in the crowd.

SANKEY IS HOPELESSLY BLIND

Examination by Specialists Shows Optic Nerve Has Been Entirely Destroyed.

New York, June 25.—Ira D. Sankey, the evangelist, is now hopelessly blind. Mrs. L. Allen, Sankey's daughter-in-law, said:

"The best eye specialists we could obtain have examined Mr. Sankey and all agree that his case is hopeless. The optic nerve has been entirely destroyed."

Mr. Sankey's trouble had been growing on him for the last two years as a result of an attack of trachoma.

Iowa Democratic State Ticket.

Des Moines, June 25.—The Democratic state convention placed in nomination the following ticket: Governor, J. B. Sullivan, Creston; lieutenant governor, D. B. Butler, Iowa City; judge of supreme court, John R. Caldwell, Tama; superintendent of public instruction, A. R. McCook, Howard; railroad commissioner, W. S. Porter, Harding. The convention refused to adopt a minority report signed by four members of the committee on resolutions adding to the platform reported by the seven members constituting the majority of the committee a plank reaffirming the Democratic national platform of 1900, and rejected another minority report adding to the plank demanding government control of railway charges, a provision that in case such control should not prove effective the national government should acquire ownership of railroads.

Engineer Killed at Post of Duty.

Cherryvale, Kan., June 25.—A St. Louis and San Francisco fast express crashed into two loaded coal cars near here while running at full speed. The engine and two dead baggage cars were telescoped. Engineer John McKenn was killed. Fireman Feist, of Fort Scott, was seriously hurt, and several passengers were bruised. The coal cars had got away from a switching crew and were rushing to meet the oncoming passenger at a high speed when the passenger train rounded a bend. Before the speed of the passenger could be checked the collision came. Both men remained at their posts.

Extra Session of Kansas Legislature.

Topeka, Jan. 25.—The Kansas legislature convened in extra session to relieve the flood situation in the Kaw valley. Thirty-four flood bills were introduced in the house and nearly as many in the senate. A big fight was developed on the question of making an appropriation to relieve the flood sufferers, as well as to authorize the building of bridges. It was expected that Governor Bailey in his message would outline some plan of relief, but he did not, leaving that for the legislature to handle.

WEIGH YOURSELF BEFORE USING

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Mi-o-na, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation, since first introduced in East Liverpool and the remarkable results following its use, have made Will Reed such an enthusiastic believer in the great value of Mi-o-na, that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na will not make thin people fat, cure indigestion and restore health.

This is a strong guarantee, but Druggist Will Reed has seen so many of his customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons, become plump and well, solely through the use of Mi-o-na that he feels he cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good, rich blood, tones up the weakened digestive organs, helps the food to digest, and makes permanent cures in the worst cases of indigestion.

ANNIHILATION OF DISTANCE.

How much nearer to each other the nations of the world seem to be today and really are today than was the case a few decades ago. When weeks and months were required for communications between the United States and Europe the countries of the old world appeared to be a long way off. Now the circumstances of old earth is belted with telegraph and cable lines in every possible direction. What happens today in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, South America and the great islands of the sea is made known to us tomorrow by great newspapers like the Chicago Record-Herald, whose foreign correspondents are located in every important city in the world outside of the United States. In addition to its own staff correspondents the Record-Herald enjoys the foreign news service of the New York Herald, famous for many years for the reliability of its foreign news, and also of that great co-operative news gathering organization, the Associated Press. No other daily newspaper in America possesses facilities so varied and extensive for covering the news of all nations.

SERVIANS WELCOME KING PETER I

Entry into Belgrade Marked by Enthusiasm in Which All Parties Participated.

Belgrade, June 25.—The entry of King Peter I into Belgrade was distinguished by a diplomatic boycott, yet his reception by the people was everywhere marked by heartiness, which approached genuine enthusiasm in which all classes participated.

The king's arrival has awakened the people out of the attitude of indifference which they had assumed since the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga. From the moment King Peter left the train and the band welcomed him with playing the Serbian national anthem, his progress was followed by prolonged cheers and exultant shouts of "Long live Peter the First" wherever he appeared.

The royal flag was hoisted over the new palace on the entry of the king into that building and the guards on duty at the old palace marched over and went on duty at the new palace. All the late King Alexander's domestics have been installed in similar capacities in King Peter's household.

SIR THOMAS ARRIVES

Hearty Welcome Accorded Distinguished Visitor by State and Nation.

RETURN OF J. PIERPONT MORGAN

Scenes Accompanying Their Landing

Rather Out of the Ordinary—Lipton

Exhibits Rabbit's Foot and Is Sanguine of Success.

New York, June 25.—The Oceanic brought Sir Thomas Lipton and J. P. Morgan, and the scenes accompanying their arrival both in the bay and at the dock were rather out of the ordinary. Sir Thomas was welcomed officially by state and nation.

As the Oceanic was towed in there came as escort the Privateer, with the Erin and the Corsair, Mr. Morgan's yacht. On the Privateer was a committee representing the city, state and nation, which included General Chaffee and Adjutant General Corbin.

Sir Thomas, once ashore, exhibiting his rabbit's foot, said he felt sure success awaited the Shamrock III. His reception was most flattering.

"Will you match Shamrock I against Columbia?" was asked.

"I will do anything for the good of the sport. I would rather not commit myself to any arrangements before the races. After the race I will be ready for anything."

"Will you try again if you do not lift the cup this time?"

"Don't try to dishearten me before the race. I almost think it will be my duty to try again. I don't think that I will have to try again, though, for I have the best boat and the best skipper that Britain can produce. If Reliance wins it will be because she is the best boat ever built to defend the cup."

"After I return from Washington I shall spend my time on the Erin. I am going to try and have a look at the Newport races next week. During the cup races Will Fife, who designed Shamrock III and who was on board the Oceanic with me, will be on the cup yacht to assist Captain Wringe sailing her. Fife is the best yachtsman in England. I, too, will be on board Shamrock during the races, as I have never missed a sail on her yet. I can only say again that I am confident of victory."

Mr. Morgan as usual had great trouble in dodging cameras. Again as usual he did not talk further than to say that there will be no reorganization of the International Mercantile Marine company.

Forming a party with Mr. Morgan on the Oceanic were Bruce Ismay, chairman of the White Star line; Henry Widding, European manager of the International Mercantile Marine company, and Sir Clinton Dawkins, who is vice president of the same company as well as the European partner of Mr. Morgan.

After landing Mr. Morgan held a conference with C. A. Griscom and G. W. Perkins, after which he boarded the Corsair, going directly to his home at Highland Falls.

Sir Thomas Lipton was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria by two score of his friends. Major General Henry C. Corbin presided. Among those present were Assistant United States Treasurer Hamilton Fish, Collector Stranahan, Senator Fairbanks, Charles M. Schwab, General Chaffee, William Fife, John H. Flagler, Warner Miller and Ferdinand W. Peck, of Chicago.

SITUATION IN THE PHILIPPINES

People Taking Kindly to American Methods and Government—Public School System.

Washington, June 25.—Judge E. Finley Johnson, one of the justices of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, discussed with the president, the situation in the islands. Judge Smith recently was elevated from the circuit to the supreme bench.

"During the two years I was on the circuit bench," said he, "I tried 1,500 cases. The Philippine people, despite occasional outbreaks, are taking kindly to American methods and to American government. I think it is a safe assertion that three-fourths of the people would not accept any other form of government, even if they had the chance. The greatest monument to American government in the Philippines is the public school system. When the United States took possession of Philippine affairs in 1898 there was not a single common school in the islands outside of Manila. Today there is not a city or town of any size in the islands without its common school and many pupils. The beneficent results of this system can be appreciated very readily."

Killed by Baseball.

Washington, June 25.—Robert L. Shannon, aged 22 years, was struck by a baseball on the Georgetown university athletic grounds and died within 30 seconds. The ball was thrown from the infield by G. W. Iddings and struck Shannon at the juncture of the brain and the spinal column. Iddings was prostrated when he learned what happened and was removed to the hospital, where his condition is serious.

Marshall P. Wilder Married. New York, June 25.—Marshall P. Wilder, the monologist, and Miss Sophie Hanks, of Brooklyn, were married here.

The calamity howling habit is strong when once it gets fastened on a party or an individual. The county Democracy at Lisbon was "seeing things" yesterday and "viewing them with alarm." Everybody will admit that there are some conditions existing that might be bettered, but no sane man will look to the Democratic party to work a change for the better. The experiment has been tried, both in Ohio and in the nation, with results that were well-nigh calamitous.

Morgan has returned home and neither the money market nor the shore tipped when he landed.

The gas company complains that council took snap judgment on it.

What sort of judgment did the trust take when it promulgated its edict, raising prices without asking the consent of wishes of anybody interested?

Kansas farmers want 50,000 men to help in their harvesting. They gathered in about $215,000,000 worth of crops last year and hope to do better this season. No wonder Populism is a lost trade out there.

It may be some consolation to the weather grumblers to learn that Europe has had quite as wet and disagreeable weather as America has experienced.

The Iowa Democrats refused to endorse the Chicago platform. Iowa Democrats don't cut much ice, but they know what hurt the rest of their brethren.

Such scenes as were enacted at the Democratic convention at Lisbon are calculated to further deepen public disgust with the Democratic party.

East Liverpool Democracy may not be large or influential, but when it comes to furnishing excitement at a convention it gets there with both feet.

Maybe the gas trust wants to restore old King Coal to his throne.

Honestly, Mr. Walsh, it wasn't worth fighting for.

ASSESSING BOARD'S WORK

Rapid Progress Made in Straightening Out the Pennsylvania Avenue Puzzle.

The Pennsylvania avenue assessing board is progressing rapidly with the work and does not anticipate serious trouble in the execution of the duties imposed upon it. The members state that there will be some difference in their report, as compared with the report of the former board, but that it will not be great. They have assessed some of the property higher than the rate imposed by the former board and some of it lower.

They are unable at the present time to announce when they will have the work completed.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING A LARGE CITY BUILDING WHERE FIRE STATION IS

"On the second floor arrange quarters for the mayor, city auditor, city treasurer, city engineer and the city solicitor. It can be done and they will have spacious rooms. Provide on the third floor a council chamber, a room for the water works, the board of public service, the board of public safety, the board of health and one for any board or body of men called upon to do special work for the city. The stories above can be arranged for business offices and a mass convention hall can be fitted up. The offices will undoubtedly be in demand and will rent for a good price. A vault can be added to the building for the protection of valuable documents, books, etc.

"In consideration of the fact that the officials now occupying the city hall are hampered by closeness until it is almost impossible for them to transact business and that, poor as it is, money is being expended upon it continually it would be a saving to erect a new building, if for no other reason. The office occupied by the water works is paid for at a big rent. The money expended for this office could be thrown into the new improvement and would assist in eliminating the material. Rent collected from the offices provided in the new building would be no small figure and beyond a doubt it would more than pay the interest on the money expended for the erection of the building. In the end enough money would be realized to wipe out the entire amount expended.

"A new building on the site, which fronts both on East Market and Broadway, would be centrally located and would be a most desirable location for both office purposes and for the transaction of public business.

"It will not be necessary to abandon the present city hall. It can be repaired and converted into a schoolhouse. It would make an elegant four room building for that purpose and could be so arranged without much expense. And more school accommodation will soon be a necessity."

COUNCIL MUST DECIDE UPON IMPROVEMENTS

Important Opinion of the City Solicitor on City Hall Renovation.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson has reached a decision on the question as to who has the right to have the city building improved. He has the decision in writing and will present it to council at its next regular meeting. After a thorough investigation of the provisions of the code on the subject he has decided that the board of public service is not empowered to order an improvement made. It is authorized to repair any defect, providing the cost will not exceed $500, without presenting the question to council, but when an improvement is to be made council must decide upon it. However, after this is done the service board can superintend the work. The solicitor's decision was asked for by council, and is a most important one.

A VOYAGE OF LOVE.

A Story of Fact That Reads Like Romance.

A VERY BRAVE OLD PIONEER.

How a Voyage to New Orleans by the Hero Helped a Worthy Minister and Relieved an Entire Community.

Out of the dust-covered annals of old frontier devotion the writer has gathered the incidents of this story. It is a tale of simple self-offering, one of the kind to be put in a choice scrapbook and read when one's affairs go awry and discouragement is creeping in.

In 1780 the Rev. Joseph Smith was settled over the Presbyterian congregations at Cross Creek and Upper Buffalo, in Washington county, Pennsylvania. He was a man of great learning and piety, and won a position in the hearts of the hardy frontiersmen such as few men are ever able to conquer. The Wetzels, Bradys and Poes, and others as famous in border annals, were among his hearers, and the Poe brothers were among those who signed the call sent to him and were his regular supporters. As the promised salary was not large the good minister had to buy a farm on credit, support himself by its produce, and promise to pay for it with the salary which he was to receive. Under such stern conditions did his labors begin.

Mr. Smith was a minister fitted to the place in which he found himself, and in a few years he was the best loved man in that portion of the border. But love could not meet financial demands, and finally he found himself in a critical situation. Indian wars and other evils had so disorganized frontier society that the people were three years in arrears with his salary, and he was served with notice to give up his farm or pay for it by a certain time. This became known to his people, who realized that if their minister lost his farm they would have to lose him. A meeting was held at which the evil condition was fully discussed. Many plans for relief were suggested, but none could be carried out. The people had no money, and could not put their plans into execution. In despair the gathering dispersed, with the agreement that another meeting would be held in a week.

There was a miller in that part of Washington county whose name was Moore. He promised that he would grind free of cost all wheat which the settlers would give to relieve the situation. This became known and the grain began to pour in. About a month later the flour was ready for market. Then a really serious problem presented itself. The nearest profitable market was New Orleans, then farther away in difficulty of access than any Chinese city is today. The people assembled and took up the question: Who would take the flour to market? This meant a tedious journey in a flatboat through the hostile Indian country to the Spanish possessions at the mouth of the Mississippi. It would now be hard to find any place in the world a journey so taxing and so dangerous as the one proposed. After long discussion the people sadly realized that the whole project must fail at this point for lack of a man, when one William Smiley, a revered elder in the Upper Buffalo church, well up toward 70 years of age, arose and declared that to serve the church and retain their minister among them he would undertake the perilous journey.

The people were astonished, but accepted the self-sacrificing offer. By promises of liberal payment two young men were persuaded to go with the old man. On the appointed day nearly the entire congregation, led by the minister, walked through the forest 15 miles to the Ohio. On the shore a prayer was made, a hymn was sung, and then the old elder cried: "Until the cable and let us see what the Lord will do for us!" The boat with its precious cargo floated slowly out of sight, and the people returned homeward, wondering what the outcome would be. Slowly the time passed, with of course no word of good or evil from the church's messenger. At last, when from out the silent western forests no tidings had come for more than nine months, the settlers began to feel sure that Elder Smiley had been lost.

One Sunday morning soon after they found the brave old man in his accustomed place at worship, and a meeting was appointed for the hearing of his report. There he told them how he had made the journey in safety and had sold the flour at New Orleans for $27 a barrel. Then he poured out before them such a heap of good gold coins as had never before been seen among so frugal a people. The minister's four years' arrearage was paid up and one year's salary was advanced to him. Elder Smiley was paid $300 and the two young men each received $100. There yet remained a goodly balance. This was divided fairly among the men whose gifts of wheat had made this remarkable enterprise possible. Thus by the kindness of all and the noble spirit of one the threatened loss of pastoral care and the consequent destruction of their religious privileges was averted. The Gulf of their darkest period was thus bridged, and the more prosperous years which followed enabled the hardy pioneers to enjoy the fruitage of their greater toil and sacrifice. This story reads like a chapter out of a volume of romantic fiction, but it is all the solidest kind of fact.

True Unfailing Health For Suffering Women.

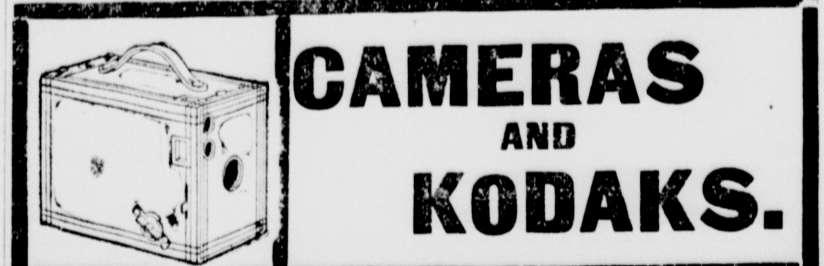

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The World's Medicine for the Cure of Female Troubles.

A large share of the evils and sufferings which women are liable to result from special female weaknesses and diseases. From the girl entering womanhood to the woman who arrives at the Grand Climacteric or "Change of life," there are troubles, ailments and irregularities—too often borne in silence—which undermine the health and result in disease. Where such conditions exist, Heaven help the poor sufferers to fully realize their perils and dangers!

It is well known that ordinary medical treatment too often fails to build up the delicate nervous system of woman, and give necessary tone and strength to the important female organs. The experience of years, medical testimony and letters from tens of thousands of cured women, point to Paine's Celery Compound as woman's friend and life-giver. Mrs. W. I. West, Fremont, Neb., writes thus:—

"I used Paine's Celery Compound for female troubles and general debility. I have taken a great deal of medicine during the last ten years, but none of them of such value as Paine's Celery Compound. I believe it is the best medicine for the nerves and the troubles from which women suffer so much, that I ever used."

WELLSVILLE

A SCREAMING TIME

ON THE FOURTH

Wellsville Prepared to Celebrate in the Lively, Old Fashioned Way.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Fourth of July meeting was held last night in the council chamber, Mayor Fogo presiding. Final arrangements were made for a monster demonstration here on the Fourth, committees on fire works, ordinance and parades having been appointed.

Red, white and blue suits have been provided for 200 boys, who will march in the parade, carrying flags.

Mailey's band, of East Liverpool, has been engaged to furnish the music, and it is expected that the East Liverpool Sons of Veterans will be here, 50 strong, including some of the department officials.

Sherman Quail, A. S. Rogers, E. S. Martin, Morris Murchland and Stephen Large were appointed the committee on sports and an attractive program is being prepared.

The uniform rank of the Colored Knights of Pythias of Steubenville will take part, with the colored K. of P. band of East Liverpool. Rev. L. A. Upshaw will give dinner and supper in the house and hook and ladder room of the city building on that day, and elaborate preparations will be made to take care of a vast multitude of visitors.

The secret societies have signified their willingness to take part in the exercises. The fire works will be given from a barge in the middle of the river. H. H. Whitacre and A. S. Rogers are the committee in charge.

The meeting was one of the most notable ever held here, and everything points to a screaming time on the glorious Fourth.

TAXES TO BE LOWER AND PEOPLE REJOICE

Wellsville Now in Shape to Buy Its Own Bonds for the First Time.

The tax commissioners met yesterday afternoon and ratified the tax levy ordinance submitted to council by Mayor Fogo and passed by that body, with the exception of the item of the 10 mills asked by the commission itself to apply to the bonded indebtedness and interest thereon. This was reduced to 5.9 mills. With that modification the ordinance will be referred to council for final action tomorrow night.

The tax commissioners merged the various funds of the city—15 in all—into a sinking fund, and when this was done it was found that the city had to its credit, and immediately available, the snug sum of $25,656.57. Of this amount $4,600 was at once invested in the bonds issued to pave Maple alley, and thus for the first time in its history did the city become the purchaser of its own bonds.

City Auditor McGregor was instructed to submit a list of all outstanding bonds with a view of the tax commissioners purchasing them as rapidly as possible.

Wellsville was never in better condition from a taxation standpoint than at present, and there is an especially good feeling among the officials. Taxes will be considerably lower than for many years previous.

SEIZED BY A RUFFIAN

Woman Fainted After Being Attacked By a Man on the Street.

The West End is being terrorized by a Jack the Grabber, and women are afraid to venture out unattended after dark. While two prominent young ladies were passing the Second Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, a burly brute sprang from the shadows of the building and caught one of the young women by the arm and attempted to drag her from the sidewalk. She screamed, as did her companion, and the culprit only released his hold after hearing the approaching footsteps of rescuers.

The young woman fainted and during the excitement incident to her restoration, the grabber made good his escape.

It has long been a notorious fact that the West End is not afforded the police protection its area demands, and the residents of that section will take up the matter with council.

Used Her Umbrella on a Purc Snatcher And Compelled Him to Flee.

While returning to her home from shopping expedition yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Nelson Kelly was attacked by an unknown man and an attempt was made to rob her. Mrs. Kelly was badly frightened when the man made a grab for her pocketbook, but succeeded in beating him off with an umbrella she carried.

The matter was reported to the police, and a lookout is being maintained for the would-be thief. The attempted holdup occurred on the hill above Steubenville street, and the place is being closely watched.

HUGE STONE FELL

Striking a Timber And Giving Workman a Terrible Blow.

James Cotton, employed on the C. & P. improvements being made near the city, met with an accident this morning which will lay him up indefinitely. Large stones were being handled by means of a derrick. One of these became unmanageable and falling upon a huge timber, hurled it high in the air. One end of the log struck Cotton on top of the head, rendering him unconscious and inflicting a severe scalp wound.

Dr. Hutchison was summoned and dressed the wound, after which the injured man was removed to his home.

SOCIAL EVENTS

YOUNG-SPONCELER

A Prominent Beaver Falls Couple Wedded—Many Guests From This City.

One of the most prominent social functions which has occurred in Beaver Falls for some time was the marriage yesterday of Miss Fern Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Young, and Mr. Frank J. Sponceler, both social leaders in Beaver Falls society. The wedding consisted of an impressive and beautiful ceremony and took place at the home of the bride's parents on Ninth avenue, which was decorated in artistic manner with tropical plants, sweet peas and carnations blended beautifully with pink and green ribbons. Promptly at high noon, to the strains of Nevin's "Narcissus" and "Lohengrin," the bridal party entered the parlor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wolfe, pastor of the First M. E. church of Beaver. The only attendants in the bridal party were the maid of honor and best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream voile over tulle silk, en traine, trimmed with applique medallions and presented a charming appearance.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The bride's table was arranged in a very pretty manner, white satin ribbons being draped from a central point in the ceiling above to the corners of the table, where they were caught in bunches of smilax and bows of the ribbon.

About 60 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sponceler will take an extended wedding trip to Cleveland and from thence will spend some time on the lakes.

Among those who attended from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins, Mr. Larkins being a cousin of the bride, William Larkins, Mrs. Lizzie Larkins, Frank Fowler, Mrs. Emma Meeks, Mrs. John T. Fowler and George F. Fowler.

Mrs. Sponceler is well known in this city, where she made many friends while visiting several summers with Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins.

The Duke of Wellington wanted a certain piece of work done and instructed an officer of the Royal engineers to do it. After examination the officer informed the duke that it was impossible.

The duke sent for another officer, a much younger man and attached to another division of the army. This officer did what the duke required.

The next morning there appeared in the "orders of the day" the following epigrammatic note: "He who in war fails to do what he undertakes may always plead accident, which invariably attends military affairs; but he who declares a thing to be impossible which is subsequently accomplished registers his own incapacity."

Most Expensive Tree in the World. Probably the most expensive tree in the world is in the City of London, on the corner of Cheapside and Wood street, about midway between the Bank of England and St. Paul's. It is an enormous oak, and is said to be 100 years old. It is protected by a clause in the deed of the property which forbids destruction of tree or branches. Architects were compelled to plan a rather peculiar building to avoid the branches. There it stands in the corner of one of the busiest streets in London, occupying ground of enormous value and positively the only tree in the City of London outside of the parks.

Whitaker-Baker. The marriage of Miss Dora Whitaker and Mr. Taylor Baker was solemnized

last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Fourth street by Squire McCarron in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their future home in Steubenville, where Mr. Baker is engaged in business.

Entertained Friends. Mr. John Vodrey entertained a few friends last evening at his home on East Fourth street in honor of Miss Mabel Laughlin, who is visiting from Cambridge Springs. The evening was delightfully spent in the playing of caroms and other games.

Annual Dance. Hollenden Club Ball Friday Evening Promises to Be a Very Fine Affair.

The first annual dance of the Hollenden club promises to be one of the leading social functions of the season. The affair will be held at Rock Springs next Friday evening, and a large number of invitations have been issued. This being the first effort of the comparatively new social society special pains are being taken to make the dance one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have been invited.

The officers of the club will see to it that the large crowds are well taken care of, and arrangements have been made to furnish entertainment throughout the entire evening. There will not be a dull moment in the program, the main feature of which will be the music. The pavilion will be appropriately decorated with club colors and flowers. A large number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Pleasantly Entertained. Miss Saling, of Pittsburg, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cassidy, Avondale street, last evening was the guest of honor at a delightful entertainment, at which a large number of friends were present.

Struck By a Shifting Engine at the Horn Switch And Crippled.

William Patterson, aged 15 years, son of Robert Patterson, an agent for the Metropolitan Insurance company, met with a distressing accident this afternoon while attempting to cross the Horn switch at Franklin street. He was run down by the shifting engine and suffered the loss of a half of his right foot, the wheels of a car running over it.

He was carried by the trainmen to the office of Dr. Trimmer, where the wound was dressed and the lad was made as comfortable as possible. He is employed in a local pottery and was going home when run down.

Propagation of Silk Worms. Washington, June 25.—The government's experiments with the propagation of the silk worm had proceeded so satisfactorily that within a few days the department will begin the actual reeling of silk. With a view of increasing the interest in this industry the department has encouraged in every way possible the growing of white mulberry trees, which, investigation has shown, develop worms which make beautiful cocoons. The experiments with the orange were unsatisfactory.

REALM OF SPORTS

BRYANITE SCORE SIXTEEN TO ONE

Very One-Sided Game Between Athletics and a Pittsburgh Team.

THE VISITORS WERE GLAD

But All They Had to Give Them Satisfaction Was the Fact That They Barely Escaped a Shutout—Males' Pitching.

Had it been Pittsburgh and Wells-ville playing in West End park yesterday afternoon instead of the East Liverpool Athletics and the Penn. club, of the Smoky City, the game could have been more one-sided. The locals simply ate them up alive to Bryan's old time of 16 to 1. Sympathy for the visiting youths got them their only run and a more tickled set of kids was never seen on a local diamond. They confidently expected to be shut out after the first man stepped up and faced Males, who had been secured for the game, and when they were allowed to score their hats went into the air and their voices were soon on a chord with frogs in Aten's pond nearby.

Considering the attraction there was a fair-sized crowd in attendance, and although they did not witness a spirited contest, all were satisfied, it being the first opportunity presented this season to watch the "Boy Wonder" put it over. He showed his scores of admirers that he has not forgotten the game, but did not try himself. He considered that to do so would be folly when the opposing team was so weak. Through a misjudgment one of the visitors was given first base in the eighth on a liner that was pronounced a hit. Another one followed with a clean hit and pushed the first to third base. He made a desperate run just as soon as the ball left the hands of Emmerling for Males and beat the return to the plate, scoring the only run. The hits credited to them were made in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings, four in all. They were scant at that. However, they should feel pretty good over the quartet, such people seldom doing so well when against Males or his equals.

The locals started to pound the ball at the beginning and never let up during the entire game. The first three men up landed for more than one base and each of them scored. Three more hits in the second gave them two more runs; two hits in the third, one more run; three hits in the fourth, one run; four hits in the fifth, three runs; two hits in the sixth, two runs; two in the seventh, two runs; four in the eighth, two runs, making a grand total of 16 runs and 22 hits. Carey got a home run; Males a trio of three-baggers; L. Emmerling a three-bagger and nearly every one a two-bagger.

The visitors were about the poorest specimens of ball players that could be unearthed in a day's travel. All of them were kids and should have

A Great Agency

We Have Secured Control for This City of the Fulton Compounds, the Only Things Known to Medicine That Cure Kidney Disease in Both the Primary and Secondary Stages.

The kidneys are not sensitive and the disease is sometimes fastened and already about with the very first symptoms. It has hung on eight to ten months it is surely chronic. Is either case why take chances? Why not take at first the only thing known that cures kidney disease in the chronic as well as the primary stages. The Fulton Compound is a powerful medicine, especially valuable for its insurmountable and doubly confirmed by consulting physicians and after recovery under the Fulton Compound the recovery was also doubly aided.

On May 1st, 1903, the son of R. C. Pell, the manager of the Pacific Coast Biscuit Company of Oakland and Fulton streets, San Francisco, was seized by the family physician to have chronic kidney disease and incurable. Another physician was called in and confirmed the diagnosis. The whole body was swollen with dropsy, and a fatal termination loomed for the Fulton Compound were then turned to as the only hope. On September 15 the dropsy had disappeared and the boy was well and after double examinations the physician declared the recovery complete and gave Mr. Pell a written report which he now has.

Judge G. A. Cabanis, the Police Judge of San Francisco, also has the recovery under his own observation of a friend of his who was recovered when the case (chronic Bright's Disease of the kidneys) was known to be incurable according to all medical authorities. Up to the advent of the Fulton Compound medicine knew nothing that would cure kidney troubles after they became chronic. About nine-tenths of all cases are now curable, even after they have developed into the dreaded chronic forms of Bright's Disease and are incurable by all other known medicines. If you kidney trouble is recent Fulton's Real Compound for Bright's and Kidney Diseases, is for Diabetes Mellitus. Free analyses made for patients. Send for pamphlet. Pain

From Inflammatory Rheumatism

Would Have Killed Our Son.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills Saved Him.

"We began to use Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills six years ago. My wife had liver trouble and a neighbor gave her some of your liver pills to try, after which we bought a bottle of them and my wife used them until cured. Since then I have used them and I must say that I have never used any pills that gave me the satisfaction these have. We also use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with greatest satisfaction. Three years ago our son Harry had inflammatory rheumatism. He had suffered so much that I believe if we had not given him Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills which relieved him almost instantly he would have died. I am always glad of the opportunity for praising Dr. Miles' Remedies."—James Everett, Alton, Ill.

"I was afflicted with neuralgia for years and never found any permanent relief till I began using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure cure for headache and neuralgic pains. Only this morning I recommended them to a friend with a severe headache and in a half hour he came into the store smiling. The headache was gone. We use them in the family and find them excellent for the women folk. This high altitude makes them very nervous. Grandma says I told her Dr. Miles' could not live here were it not for the Anti-Pain Pills that she takes occasionally."—L. B. Morris, Helena, Montana.

backed the Sixth Street Bums. Very likely they would have been beaten on that proposition.

Lafe Emmerling came near being put out of the business early in the game. He was behind the bat when a foul tip struck his right knee cap and knocked him to the ground. He was carried to the bench and his brother was substituted. He recovered, however, before the game was at an end and played the field.

The locals played a nice game and if they had had a strong team against them the fans would have witnessed a pretty contest.

Old Age IS MADE Vigorous BY THE USE OF DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

"I suffered for six years with constipation and indigestion, during which time I employed several physicians, but they could not reach my case," writes Mr. G. Popplewell, of Eureka Springs, Carroll Co., Ark. "I felt that there was no help for me, could not retain food on my stomach; had vertigo and would fall helpless to the floor. Two years ago I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and little 'Pellies,' and improved from the start. After taking twelve bottles of the Discovery I was able to do light work, and have been improving ever since. I am now in good health for one of my age—60 years. I owe it all to Doctor Pierce's medicines."

Crockery City, made a star play, taking a fast liner from Allison's bat in the ninth and retiring Wells at second at the same time. The score:

Postponed a Week.

Rain interfered with the game of base ball scheduled to be played between the Hollenden and the Belmont clubs, and it was postponed until Wednesday evening of next week. But two innings were played on Tuesday evening, and when they were finished the Belmont boys were in the lead. The work of Shenkel, the umpire, was highly satisfactory.

Clerks vs. Railroaders.

The retail clerks of Wellsville and a strong team from the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad shops will play a much-talked of game of base ball this afternoon on the West End diamond in Wellsville. Great interest attaches to the contest and a large crowd is looked for.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

The prize list of the Louisville Horse Show association at this fall's exhibition will exceed $23,000, which is more money than is offered in any other city except New York.

Middle Weight Champion Tommy Ryan, who dropped out of public view rather suddenly, is, according to a letter from his wife, in a sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., suffering from the effects of a bad stomach.

Jack O'Keefe is to battle with Jimmy Britt for the third time. The rising Chicago pugilist will enter the ring with the idle of the Pacific coast in the third battle for the white light-weight championship this July.

The race track management of the east is determined to bar the plungers off their courses. For that reason Geo. E. Smith, better known as "Pittsburgh Phil," has been practically ruled off the turf by the New York Jockey club.

Ashbaugh's Athletics will play at Alliance Saturday.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with."—Sale by Alvin & Bulger.

German Syrup.

We want to impress on our readers that Boschee's German Syrup is positively the only preparation on the market today that does relieve and cure consumption. It contains the specific, such as pure tar, extracts of gum, etc., which have been so highly endorsed for the cure of coughs, colds and consumption by the great medical congresses. The consumptive, whether his disease is in the throat or lungs, must have rest at night, and be free from the spasm of dry and racking cough in the morning. The diseased parts want rest, healing and soothing treatment, and the patient needs fresh air, good food, etc. German Syrup will give free and easy expectoration in the morning with speed and permanent relief. Small bottles, 25 cents; regular size, containing nearly four times as much, 75 cents. At all druggists.

FIND THE HIDDEN DOG.

Victim of Assault Dies.

St. Louis, June 25.—The mystery as to the identity of the negro who assaulted Miss Florence Bruno, a white girl, and Annie Green, colored, Tuesday afternoon between East St. Louis and Belleville, increases, and the authorities are unable to solve it. Fifteen suspects arrested since the crime became known have been released after proving alibis. A negro named Griffiths, who was arrested here, will be taken to East St. Louis. Miss Bruno died from the effects of her terrible injuries and Annie Green is thought to be past recovery. It was on the rather vague description given by the Green woman, during a spell of consciousness just after the assault, that the various arrests have been made. As yet she has been unable to identify any of the suspects.

EMPEROR WELCOMED

Plenty of Powder Burned Firing Salutes in Honor of His Majesty.

AMERICAN OFFICERS RECEIVED

Unprecedented Courtesy Paid United States Navy—Crews of American Vessels Hospitably Entertained on Shore by German Sailors.

Kiel, Prussia, June 25.—Emperor William arrived on board the Hohenzollern. When the imperial yacht was sighted steaming into Kiel harbor she had the stars and stripes flying from the aftermast, and as she sailed by Rear Admiral Cotton's flagship, the Kearsarge, the imperial colors floating at the stern were dipped three times. This courtesy being without precedent in the German navy caused Rear Admiral Cotton, at once, to thank his majesty in the name of the president of the United States for the honor shown to the American navy.

The emperor's entrance into the harbor was the occasion for a tremendous cannonade, each of the 32 warships firing 33 guns, the Americans observing the German regulation for honoring the sovereign. As the smoke from the thousand guns blew aside the Hohenzollern entered the lane of warships, at the upper end of which were the American vessels. The emperor stood alone on the upper bridge. The crews manning the cross trees, turrets and sides of the American ships gave him a salute of three cheers as the yacht passed, which he acknowledged by saluting continuously, as the imperial colors were flown from the aftermast of each American warship. Aboard the Kearsarge was a party of Americans, including Ambassador Tower, R. R. Ritt, secretary of the Berlin embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mrs. Potts, wife of the United States naval attaché.

Earlier in the day Rear Admiral Cotton had received a telegram from the emperor saying his majesty would be pleased to receive him and the other American commanders as soon as possible after his arrival. Consequently the rear admiral assembled the captains on his flagship and just as the Hohenzollern was attached to her mooring buoy Rear Admiral Cotton's barge reached the yacht's gangway. Captain Usedom met Rear Admiral Cotton, Captains Walker, Cornwall and McCrea, Lieutenant Hussey, of the admiral's staff, and Naval Attaché Potts at the head of the gangway and presented them to Emperor William, who was standing two or three steps away, with his suite grouped behind him. His majesty shook hands and conversed for a minute with each of the American officers, saying how glad he was to see them in German waters. Turning to Rear Admiral Cotton, the emperor said: "You were in the monitor at Hampton Roads, were you not?"

"Not in the monitor, sir," replied the admiral, "but in another ship which stuck in a sand bank."

His majesty alluded to other incidents in Admiral Cotton's career and said he wished to visit the Kearsarge and would be pleased to take lunch aboard her. Rear Admiral Cotton and his captains then retired.

The emperor's arrival was an hour later than expected, and his majesty, therefore, did not visit the Kearsarge. Leave was given to 350 men from the American crews to go on shore. They were taken in charge individually and in groups by the German sailors, who treated them in the most hospitable manner.

PEONAGE PREVAILS IN GEORGIA

Negro in Debt Is Caught, Whipped and Put to Work—Case Tried at Macon.

Macon, Ga., June 25.—In United States court Judge Emory Spear imposed a fine of $1,000 each on three young men, William Shy, Arthur Clawson and Robert Turner, for holding a negro in involuntary servitude. He suspended the fine under conditions, and in so doing said:

"In view of the fact that it is the first crime of the kind which ever has occurred in Georgia and because of the frank confession of the young men, sentence is imposed in order to convince the public that the purpose of the court is to warn and deter others from like crime. During good behavior fine is suspended upon payment of $100 by each."

The offense was that the young men, who are prominent farmers, caught a negro who was in debt to them, gave him a whipping and made him go to work for them.

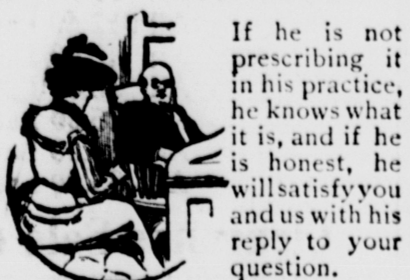

Judge Spear said that the problem of the times could not be solved by harsh measures and wanted it distinctly understood that the laws of Georgia were against such treatment.

Demurrers were filed in all the cases, which were overruled, and Pace then pleaded guilty in all the cases and appealed to the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans, giving bond in the sum of $5,000. STRIKE LEADS TO BLOODSHED

Guards Fire Into Crowd of Sympathizers, Wounding Six Men, Two Seriously.

Richmond, Va., June 25.—Six men were wounded, two of them seriously, by street railway company guards, who fired into a crowd of strike sympathizers just outside the city limits. A car guarded by employees of the company, armed with shotguns, was standing at that point. There had been a big crowd there all the evening. The company claims that the guards were fired on first. At any rate, they fired into the crowd and a brisk fusillade followed.

While this was taking place in the West Side exciting scenes were enacted in the East End, where efforts were made to operate cars under the protection of the militia. All sorts of missiles were hurled at the cars and obstructions placed on the track. Finally the cars under the pilotage of a detachment of the Richmond Howitzers, with a galling gun, were taken to the barns.

Five companies of the Seventy-first regiment, from Norfolk and Newport News, are on the way to this city to reinforce the troops already here. The mayor has issued an address asking women and children to keep off the streets.

Three militiamen were wounded by the accidental discharge of a rifle. One of them was taken to a hospital, but is not dangerously injured.

MRS. M'KINLEY'S NIECE MARRIED

Miss Ida Barber Becomes Wife of Luther Day at Canton—Wealth of Wedding Presents.

Canton, O., June 25.—At 7 o'clock Wednesday evening Miss Ida Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barber and niece of Mrs. McKinley, became the wife of Luther, second son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. William R. Day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of several hundred guests.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Barber, and the groom by his brother, Stephen. For the wedding dinner the bride's table was set in the dining room and was surrounded by the members of the Day and Barber families.

When the first niece of the McKinleys was married the late president said that all should have the same bridal presents when their turns came, and ordered for Mabel McKinley, now Mrs. Dr. Baer, a massive silver service. That was duplicated by Mrs. McKinley for Mrs. Mary Barber last fall and again for the present bride. There was a wealth of other presents, including a set of china and gold coffee cups from Senator and Mrs. Hanna.

Agent Sewed Money in Coat Lining. St. Louis, June 25.—It was brought out through statements made to Circuit Attorney Folk by witnesses called to testify before the grand jury in connection with the St. Louis street car consolidation deal in the legislature that the legislative agent of the street car companies took $150,000, sewed in the lining of his coat, and turned it over to two agents at Jefferson City for the alleged purpose of buying votes. This was during the legislative session of 1899. The names of the agent and the individuals in this deal are known to the circuit attorney, but are withheld for the present.

THE PRESS AROUSED

WHY THE PENNSYLVANIA EDITORS ARE INDIGNANT.

Keystone State's New Libel Law Called a "Press Muzzler"—How Newspapers May Be Affected—Governor Pennypacker.

Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker, who has aroused the universal indignation of the press of the Keystone State by signing the stringent libel law recently passed by the legislature, has been criticised unparagonably by the editors for his attempt at "press muzzling," as they term the new law.

The law provides that civil actions may be brought to recover damages resulting from negligence on the part of the owner, proprietor or managing editor of a newspaper in the ascertainment of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens. It is further provided that "if it shall be shown that the publication complained of resulted from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, manager or editor in the ascertainment of the facts or in the publication thereof compensatory damages may be recovered for injuries to business and reputation resulting from such publication as well as damages for the physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties, and whenever in any such action it shall be shown that the matter complained of is libelous and that such libelous matter has been given special prominence by the use of pictures, cartoons, headlines, displayed type or any other matter calculated to specially attract attention the jury shall have the right to award punitive damages against the defendant or defendants."

In the statement issued by Governor Pennypacker approving the law and giving his reasons for signing it he cited the publication of a cartoon in a recent issue of a Philadelphia newspaper. "The cartoon," the governor said, "put into words that the press asserts to the world that it is above the law and greater in strength than the government. No self-respecting people will permit such an attitude to be long maintained. In England a century ago the offender would have been drawn and quartered and his head stuck on a pole without the gates. In America this is the kind of arrogance that 'goes before a fall.'

The newspapers have announced their determination to continue on exactly the same lines hitherto followed, ignoring the existence of the new law. It is the intention of the papers to force a test case at once and carry the constitutionality of the act to the supreme court.

Governor Pennypacker is a man of peculiar characteristics. Much of his spare time has been given to the study of the history of Pennsylvania, but it is a mistake to assume that his laborious researches into colonial or revolutionary history have prevented him

PEOPLE WHO CAN'T SLEEP

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That this condition goes on uncorrected is almost criminal, when the well-known, time-tested and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. M. C. Murchland, of Commerce street, Wellsboro, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in my case proved themselves an excellent nerve and general tonic. I was run down, nervous and not sleeping well. The medicine, however, gave me bodily strength, nerve steadiness and restful sleep, consequently I feel I can't recommend it too highly to others who suffer in a like manner."

THE SENTIMENT OF JEALOUSY

By P. MANTEGAZZA, Italian Anthropologist

WHY, when love is offended, should we invent a new sentiment, jealousy? ALL SENTIMENTS, WHEN THEY ARE SATISFIED, BRING US CLOSER TO THE ONE WHO HAS GIVEN THEM SATISFACTION, lead us to lavish caresses on him, to do good to him. Every wounded sentiment, on the contrary, leads us to return the offense, to do ill to him who caused the offense.

If by jealousy we mean the pain suffered when we feel that we are not loved, or have been deceived, EVERY HEART THAT LOVES OUGHT TO BE JEALOUS, just as whoever loves country and mother cannot see them offended without suffering pain. But if we take it to mean that tyrannical suspicion which leads us to torment the person who possesses us I would say, on the contrary, THAT WE NOT ONLY CAN LOVE, BUT CAN LOVE BETTER, WITHOUT BEING JEALOUS, and that we cannot love and experience jealousy.

THE DEATHBLOW TO THE OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

By Professor DEMETRIUS C. BOULGER of London

RUSSIA'S continued occupation of Manchuria will go on undisturbed. IF SHE EVACUATES ONE PLACE IT WILL BE ONLY TO GO TO ANOTHER A FEW MILES OFF. Her officials will be as supreme there as on Russian soil. No one else will have any rights. That innocent institution, the Russo-Chinese bank, will receive the dues of the customs and account for them to the Russian government or resident.

What will be the moral of this? It is one that the most timid of ministers need not fear to apply to the general position in China. Russia's retention of Manchuria signifies A DEATHBLOW TO THE POLICY OF "THE OPEN DOOR."

The loss of that important and valuable province carries with it so serious a breach of the integrity of China that it becomes forthwith a mere illusion.

CHINA MINUS MANCHURIA AND MONGOLIA IS NO LONGER THE SAME STATE THAT EXISTED BEFORE THE BOXER MOVEMENT.

from taking an active interest in current affairs.

His energy and capacity for work are remarkable. He exhibits in his heavy frame and great muscular development some of the characteristics of his Dutch ancestry. He was born in Phenixville and even as a boy turned his attention to the colonial history of his state. Additional zest was given to his researches by the fact that his own people were active in the civil and military events that built up the great state of which he is now governor.

Fourteen years ago he was appointed by Governor Beaver to be judge of the court of common pleas and was subsequently elected to that office for a term of ten years and re-elected for another term.

Governor Pennypacker has a wife and four children. His son was graduated a year or so ago from the University of Pennsylvania. The governor was himself graduated from this institution in 1896.

By his act in putting the new libel law of Pennsylvania into effect Governor Pennypacker has antagonized the press of the state. What influence it will have on his political future is problematical. Judging from the senti-

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNeil pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Granted a Patent—Edwin L. Yewell, patent solicitor of Washington, D. C., reports a patent issued this week to Allan M. Fisher, of this city, for a gas regulator.

No Games of Chance—Mayor Weaver yesterday refused a license to a man who wanted to run a game on the street. The man admitted it was a game of chance and that settled it. The mayor says no schemes of that sort will be licensed.

Case Reported Hopeless—Mrs. J. W. Gipper left this morning for Pittsburgh to visit Mrs. M. B. Johnston, who is so seriously ill in the Presbyterian hospital. It was reported yesterday that Mrs. Johnston is declining fast and that she is expected to die at any time.

Visited the Orphans—Rev. J. G. Reinartz has returned from Zelenople, Pa., where, as one of the board of visitors, he visited the Lutheran orphan's home. It was the annual donation day and fully 2,500 Lutherans were present. In this well managed home are about 90 children and orphans. Director J. J. Kribbs and wife celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary as managers of the institution yesterday, and were the recipients of many valuable gifts.

Elected a Delegate—An interesting and enthusiastic business meeting of the members of the First M. E. church was held last evening following the prayer meeting for the purpose of electing a law delegate to the East Ohio conference which meets at Akron, O., in September. William Kent acted as chairman of the meeting and H. Clark as secretary. It was unanimously decided to have Christian Metch attend the conference as lay delegate and Charles H. Coyne as alternate.

Pronounced Incurable—Word has been received by friends in this city from J. J. Langley, who went to Battle Creek, Mich., several weeks ago. Mr. Langley has been afflicted with lung trouble for several years, and the object in sending him to the Battle Creek sanitarium was the hope that his health might be improved. Instead of any change for the better he has grown steadily worse, and the relatives here are prepared for bad news at any time. The Langley family has had more than its share of ill luck, but it seems that they are not through with it yet. Mr. Langley has been pronounced incurable by his physicians.

CENTENNIAL ARCH

May Be Left As a Permanent Ornament to Lisbon Village.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—The large double arch on the square, erected as part of the centennial decorations, may be left as a permanent fixture. It has been suggested that it be equipped with galvanized iron and stone foundations.

An attempt will be made to raise funds to fit the arch with the necessary equipment to make it a permanent memorial of the centennial.

IMMENSE CROWD AT COOPER'S

Again Last Night On Brunt's Hill.

A RARE ENTERTAINMENT

By This Marvelous Man of Medicine and Unique Ideas of Advertising.

The free show, promenade concert and medical lecture given by Colonel Cooper and his superb company of capable performers and musicians tonight furnishes rare entertainment and instruction for thousands of people of this city.

The crowd last night was simply a mighty throng of interested people who heard with rapture the popular classical selections by Cooper's own band and thoroughly enjoyed the high-class vaudeville performance. Cooper was in an oratorical mood and his lecture was one of the best ever delivered. He expatiated upon the incomparable virtues of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery—showing in an able and convincing manner how it renovated the human system, purifying the blood of all disorder and restoring the health and happiness of those who for years had suffered torture of both body and mind. Cooper's talk was so convincing—such a perfect diagnosis of the ills of those who stood before him, that scores raised their hand for the wonderful medicine when the call was made. As the supply of the remedy is nightly limited a great many were obliged to go away disappointed.

A new supply, however, will be received by express this morning and it can be found at the show grounds. Consultation is absolutely free in every case.

There will be an entire change of program tonight and you are invited to attend and enjoy yourself.

Mr. Snyder, who lives at 350 Calcutta road, was cured of deafness by an application of Dr. Cooper's quick relief. He is well known in this city.

The sales parlors are located at Mrs. Buckley's, 301 Lincoln avenue, two squares from the Diamond.

SOUTH SIDE

OF REAL MERIT

Is the Performance Given at Rock Springs Park Theatre This Week.

It is not often that an aggregation of as much real merit is gathered together in one house as that which Manager Strauss has given the people at Rock Springs theatre this week. There is not a dull turn in the entire program and several of the artists are deserving of the highest praise. The opening turn is given by Hawkins & Harris, and they do it well. Miss Gladys Van, as a comedienne and singer of coon songs, has been a general favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, Miss Temple and Mr. Clark are extremely funny in the sketch "An Up-to-Date Flat." The piece is free from vulgarity and the audience is kept in a continuous laugh. As an impersonator and vocalist, Dave Nowlin has few equals and certainly no superiors on the vaudeville stage this season. The range of his voice is wonderful. He has assisted this week by George Bevington, a local boy, who has on more than one occasion demonstrated that he has talent in the comedy line. For actual originality, Eddie Doyle, the celebrated juggler, cannot be beaten. The present bill will not change until next Monday.

FOUR ARRESTS MADE AND SOME EXCITEMENT

A Crowd Made it Unpleasant For Officer Good, Who Drew His Revolver.

As the result of a fight waged at Rock Springs park this afternoon at about 2 o'clock, four of the Pittsburgh excursionists were arrested and placed on a street car and placed in the Chester jail. Three of the men started a fight on a street car and the fourth one was arrested for being the leader of a mob that attempted to take the park by storm.

Officer Good made the arrest of the latter under difficult circumstances, a crowd of 150 men rushing in on him, making it necessary for him to flourish a revolver. A large crowd of East Liverpool people witnessed the affray and they say it was an exciting scene.

TWO GOOD WELLS

One of 60 and the Other of 25 Barrel Production, in the Carson Field.

Freshwater & Carson, operating in the Carson field, have brought in a 60 barrel well on the Carson farm. Last winter the concern, when about down to pay sand on the No. 2 well, were surprised to find that during the night some one had deliberately dropped a piece of iron or steel into the hole. After a fishing job of two weeks they had to suspend operations. They were apparently satisfied that the location was a good one and two weeks ago moved the rig about 12 feet from the old hole and started drilling again.

E. A. Freshwater, in the same field, drilling No. 1 on the Ewing farm, struck a 25 barrel well on Saturday, which is keeping up its showing.

A CREW OF MEN AT WORK ON SMITH'S NEW RAILWAY

Operations Begun This Morning Regardless of the Injunction Proceedings Now Pending.

PROPOSED TO RUSH ITS COMPLETION

A large force of men were put to work this morning on the street railway of C. A. Smith and his associates at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and East Fifth street. The workmen have made considerable progress, and from present indications there will be no delay. The company has secured the consent of a great majority of the property owners on East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, and no trouble is anticipated from that source.

Mr. Smith was seen at noon today and said:

"We are simply going ahead with the work in accordance with the franchise granted to our company by the city. There has been no change of plans nor alteration in the original intentions. We have the materials and equipment on the ground, and will push the work to completion as rapidly as possible. As far as the suit now pending in court is concerned, no attention whatever is being paid to it, nor is the prospect for an adverse decision causing us the least anxiety."

"The application for an injunction has been made, but until it has been heard and a decision rendered we will proceed with the building of the road. The rails, ties and some of the other equipment have been delivered, and it was the intention to begin when these preliminaries had been arranged, so that the threatened injunction has not delayed the task in hand a single hour. Unless enjoined or prevented from so doing by unforeseen difficulties, there will be no cessation of active operations until the line is entirely completed and in actual operation."

Mr. Smith appeared to be in dead earnest and was not in the least concerned as to the outcome of the proceedings of the property owners in the vicinity of East Fifth street. According to the franchise the board of public service could not do otherwise than to give its consent to open the street. The force now at work will be increased as fast as the progress of the work will permit, and it is confidently expected that the road will be completed to the East End within a short time.

SALOON KEEPERS ARE SUBPOENAED

Several East Liverpool Men Cited to Appear Before Common Pleas Court.

THE GRAND JURY'S WORK

The prediction made by the knowing ones, and the fear expressed by the saloon men themselves that the special grand jury would have to do with the liquor business and very little else, has been fully realized. Six East Liverpool saloonists have been summoned to appear before the court of common pleas at Lisbon to answer to charges of various kinds, all of which are more or less serious.

Since the new administration took hold of the affairs of this city, there have been many alleged violations. In a few instances the offenders were prosecuted under the city ordinances, but only where it was certain a conviction could be secured. Where it appeared there was any doubt that the charges could be substantiated, the matters were turned over to the prosecutor to be brought to the attention of the grand jury. A number of witnesses were before the latter body yesterday from this city, and while the majority were said to be men who were slated as habituals, there were a few minors among the number. There seemed to be a disposition on the part of the grand jury to look into the alleged violation of the Sunday liquor laws in East Liverpool, and that the effort was successful is known in at least one case. Michael Cloran and his son were indicted for Sunday selling, and will probably go with the others today.

Cal Bowers and his bartender, Tom Davis and wife, Jack Robinson and wife, Cornelius Smith, Ben Schar, John Johannes, all of this city, have been summoned to appear before the common pleas court at 1 o'clock today. Deputy W. C. Powell served the papers early this morning, and the parties left immediately for the county seat.

Johannes is, or was, the janitor of the Turner hall, and at the last municipal election, is alleged to have furnished liquor to some of the election officers. One of the voting precincts was located in the hall, and the officers on duty there were right in the building all day. It has been stated by members of the Turner society that if the janitor did furnish or sell intoxicants on that day he did so without authority from the society, and it is just possible that he may be left to fight the case on whatever charge the grand jury has found. In his own behalf without the aid of the society.

FEES OF AUDITORS ARE RESTRICTED

They Are Only Entitled to Four Per Cent on Taxes They Discover Unpaid.

Columbus, June 25.—(Special).—Attorney General Sheets has rendered an opinion to Prosecutor W. R. Alban, of Jefferson county, that the auditor of that county is not entitled to four per cent penalty for additions made to the tax duplicate by the board of equalization, nor is he entitled to that percentage for the listing of property omitted by mistake. He may only receive the four per cent fee when he by his own diligence discovers and places on the duplicate property which tax dodgers seek to escape payment on.

This opinion applies to all county auditors.

THE GRAND JURY DID QUICK WORK

In Two Days Investigated 42 Cases and Found 36 Indictments.

SOME OF CHARGES MADE

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special).—The special grand jury finished its work and made its report to the court yesterday afternoon, after having been in session less than two days. The report follows:

"This special grand jury was empaneled on Tuesday, June 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., and after instructions from the court, commenced the investigation of cases presented.

"We investigated 42 cases, examined 57 witnesses and found 36 indictments."

William Morron, foreman, signed the report.

Among the indictments returned were the following:

Edward Duncan, Washington township, horse stealing.

Daniel Davis, Salem, selling liquor to a habitual drunkard.

Robert Nace, Lisbon, larceny.

George Easton, Wellsville, four indictments for a crime against a sister and two indictments of a similar nature.

Michael and Thomas Cloran and Charles Waggle, East Liverpool, for keeping place open and selling liquor on Sunday.

Frank Easton, Wellsville, four indictments for crime against a daughter and two for a similar offense.

William Bowles, Middleton township, embezzlement of a watch valued at $2.

Health Officer Chosen.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special).—At a meeting of the Lisbon city council last night, David Eells was appointed health officer. The tax levy was fixed at 15 mills.

SHANTYTOWN WAS MUCH TROUBLED

Two Policemen and Three Officers Made a Search of Boats, Looking For Stolen Plunder.

Excitement reigned in the shanty boat districts last night when two policemen and three detectives in the employ of the C. & P. Railroad company scoured the beach and several of the boats in search of several hundred dollars worth of plunder that has been stolen during the past few weeks.

As reported exclusively in the News Review on Monday a box car on a siding near the passenger depot was entered the latter part of last week and at least 20 bottles of Overholt whisky stolen and carried away. Of late more stealing of this nature has been carried on than for several years. The railroad detectives have been notified on every occasion and though they have discovered a few clues they have never been able to track the guilty parties successfully.

Besides breaking into freight cars the thieves have been systematically stealing pieces of iron from the railroad, and one night not long since they succeeded in getting away with nearly 1,000 pounds of valuable iron castings and other material. Thefts of gas pipes and brass from numerous

The East Liverpool Democrat Was Pummelled a Good Deal By Party Brethren.

HARD TO KEEP ORDER

Energetic Work on the Part of Sergeants-at-Arms Finally Restored Peace After a Disgraceful, Rough and Tumble Fight.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special).—The attempt of J. C. Walsh, of East Liverpool, a defeated aspirant for the nomination for representative, to turn the Democratic county convention into a Punch and Judy show yesterday, was a deplorable and disgraceful affair, which is now regretted perhaps by no one more than Walsh himself.

When the vote on candidates was announced in which it was shown that Walsh had been defeated, he got the floor and began a tirade in which he wanted to know whether the gathering was a Democratic, Mugwump, Republican or Prohibition convention. He was interrupted by T. S. Arnold, of Leontia, who raised the point that Walsh was not an accredited delegate and not entitled to a hearing. Walsh was denied the privilege of the floor, but he continued to interrupt until W. H. Spence was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and succeeded in quieting Walsh. Later, owing to a further interruption from Walsh, the convention was compelled to suspend proceedings in confusion.

Chairman Allen called for assistant sergeants-at-arms to eject the disturber. Two pairs of strong arms finally laid hold of Walsh and started for the door with him, almost tearing away the probate bar rail.

In a moment the men were struggling on the floor and blows were struck that threatened to involve other members of the convention. Walsh was permitted to regain his feet and after a terrific struggle was forced out of the door and into the corridor, where the struggle continued until Hon. Al. Carille, Sheriff Leonard and others succeeded in restoring quiet, and Walsh was led away bleeding slightly about the face and neck.

While the convention was regaining its equilibrium, a prominent East Liverpool delegate made remarks derogatory to Walsh and a few of his friends, saying they represented an element which had been a mill stone about the neck of the party in that city.

After the excitement had died down the convention finished its business expeditiously, a full report of which was given in yesterday's News Review, in conclusion extending a vote of thanks to the sergeant-at-arms for preserving order.

After adjournment the county central committee organized by electing as chairman W. J. Foley, of East Palestine. Chairman Foley is empowered to select a secretary and treasurer. For the first time in 28 years Editor W. S. Potts, of the Patriot, was unable to attend the convention yesterday afternoon, being occupied with a case in court.

WATER SHUT OFF

From the Homes of Delinquent Patrons of This City Department.

The officials of the city water works have ordered the water to be shut off at the homes of the delinquent renters. Quite a number were served thus yesterday and a few today.

Clerk Gipner states that the number of delinquents is much less than usual and that he thinks all of them will be around and settle their bills before the end of the week.

AN ANGRY ITALIAN FOUGHT VICIOUSLY

Tried to Kill Officials of the Construction Company by Shooting Them.

TAKEN AFTER A STRUGGLE

The little hamlet of Industry was again the scene of a wild west production last evening. And as in the numerous exciting melees that have occurred there of late, the employees of Sims & Co., railroad contractors, were the principals. As the result of last night's affray an Italian boss by the name of Patrick Calsamo is in the Beaver jail and at least a score of his brethren are nursing badly bruised heads.

It was pay day for the employees yesterday, and because the paymaster of the construction company would not send Calsamo's stipend from this city to him at Industry he became terribly enraged, and early in the evening, when Supt. Bernard Patton, J. J. Dugan and Timekeeper R. S. Ovelman, who had gone from the local office on Second street, met him near his shanty in Industry, he was in a fit of madness and made a vicious assault on the gentlemen. He cried out that he wanted his money and that he would kill the men if they did not produce it. The trio were fearless and ordered him to seek other quarters.

Instead of complying with the command the angered son of Italy showed fight. He pulled from a hip pocket a big revolver and when not more than 10 yards from Superintendent Patton aimed it at him and fired twice in rapid succession. Luckily for Mr. Patton, the aim was erring and the bullets flew wide of their mark. The trio of officials began to realize the dangerous predicament they were in and commenced to make preparations for defense. Hardly had the pistol shots sounded until the spot was black with Italians, the number being estimated at about 100, and all were excitedly running to and fro, making wild gestures and threats.

After the performance had been on in full blast for possibly three minutes a score or more of the foreigners made a rush at the American gentlemen and the melee that followed was the picture of a riot scene. Finally the Italians were subdued, some of them receiving hard cracks on the head and not a few of them being felled.

Constable Finley Mason was attracted to the scene and was advised to arrest Calsamo. He was game and started in on the undertaking but met with considerable difficulty and had not other Americans assisted him he would have been solely at the mercy of the Italians. He succeeded at last in getting the man under control and accompanied by a half dozen Americans escorted him to the jail at Beaver.

Messrs. Patton, Dugan and Ovelman declare that it was the most exciting time of their lives and consider themselves very fortunate at escaping unharmed. A charge of shooting with intent to kill has been preferred against Calsamo.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING A LARGE CITY BUILDING WHERE FIRE STATION IS

The Advocates of the Scheme Say the Structure Would Pay For Itself In Time.

Since the proposition was offered and practically agreed upon to add improvements, the cost of which would aggregate nearly $3,000, to the city hall, the question of the propriety of such a move has been given considerable attention by several conservative business men and they have agreed that the improvements should not be made to the building; instead that a new building, commodious, substantial and up to date in every particular should be erected.

In conversation with one of these gentlemen this morning a reporter of the News Review gleaned the well based ideas of the new proposition and it is urged that the city council and the remaining officials of the city give them due consideration before taking definite action on the plan over which they have labored since it was proposed.

That the present city hall is a disgrace to the Crockery City everyone will agree. There is not a city in the state of the same size that is suffered to bear the harsh criticisms that falls to East Liverpool because of its miserable looking municipal building. The city has grown remarkably fast during the last few years and will continue to advance. Its residents deserve something better than the disgraceful structure situated at the corner of Third and Market streets. The officials of such a thriving city deserve better quarters. They should have them and it is claimed it will be the practice of economy to make the provision.

"Raze the central fire station," argues the financier. "Though it is in better condition than the city hall, it is nevertheless a disgrace to the city. Erect in its stead a brick and stone structure of five or six stories. The cost may come close to $50,000, but even if it does it will be the means of saving the city thousands of dollars of unnecessary expense and in the end the building will pay for itself. In the building provide for a jail, a clean, respectable one. Make a place for an up-to-date fire station. Both of these can be arranged on the first floor and they will be proudly taken care of by those appointed for that work."

DEMOCRATS PASS SOME RESOLUTIONS

Find Many Things Which They Profess to Deplore And to Be Alarmed At.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special).—In the Democratic county convention yesterday resolutions were passed declaring the necessity of self government; deplored the tendency to depart from a purely democratic government and to place political power in the hands of a plutocratic class as alarming; expressing fears that the foundation of the government is being undermined; alleging that organized wealth reaches into the public treasury and the people's funds are stolen, in high and low places, in sums both large and small; suggesting as a remedy for alleged evils that the masses be moved by honesty; that a wandering from American soil and an aping after royalty fill Americans with disgust and fear; quoting against entangling foreign alliances; danger in refusing to let the constitution follow the flag; the only safety to elect honest and economical men to office and require a strict accounting; mourning increasing tax burdens; demanding honesty and economy in county affairs; closing with an expression of pride in Sheriff Leonard and a eulogy for him.

News and Notes About The Potteries

DO NOT BELIEVE HIM DEAD.

Strange stories are said to be afloat in Tiffin over the death and funeral of the late Colonel Albert Brewer, ex-pottery manufacturer, who passed away suddenly at his home several weeks ago. These stories are to the effect that there are some people who do not believe that Brewer is dead. It is declared he was seen on the streets the night of the day preceding the one of his death, and some who attended the obsequies, which were quite exclusive, are reported as having said that the face in the casket was much unlike that of the man it purported to be. At the time of his death, it will be recalled, a charge of manslaughter was resting over Brewer's head. While there are some credulous enough to attach some importance to the rumors, friends of the family denounce the whole story as a cruel hoax. The remains were taken to Trenton, N. J., for interment, the birthplace of the deceased.

AGAINST LABOR DAY PARADE.

The question of whether or not there will be a parade in East Liverpool on Labor day has been brought before several of the Brotherhood locals since the last meeting of Trades Council, and as was expected the potterers are in favor of doing away with the feature. This feeling is not unanimous, however, and it is just possible that there will be enough locals outside the pottery industry to carry the question in favor of a parade. The unionists who favor having a parade as usual are enthusiastic in their support of the move, and will not give it up until it is proved beyond a doubt that the other side have the most votes.

NEW PLANT.

The Mannington plant of the Cameron pottery concern is nearing completion, and the machinery will be installed as soon as a Bucyrus machine company has completed the order. This is the second pottery of Benedum Bros. The Mannington plant is modeled after the fashion of the factor at Cameron. The present unsteady condition of the industry in general has not discouraged the West Virginia capitalists.

THE KEYSTONE BUSY.

The new double decorating kiln of the Keystone Pottery company, of New Brighton, Pa., is completed, and the bisque kiln will be finished by July 1. Manager Rigby says the plant has been a most pronounced success in every particular. Orders coming in this late in the season are keeping it busy.

TRYING TO GET TOGETHER.

Dippers' union No. 41, at its latest meeting, discussed the labor trouble at the Glasgow pottery of the John Moses & Sons company at Trenton. A committee was appointed to confer with the firm and endeavor to adjust the difficulty. The conference will take place in a day or two.

RESUME JULY 7.

Work in most of the departments in the East End potteries will be brought to a close tonight until after July 4. The employees have all been notified to return to work on the seventh and eighth of July and all feel confident of a steady run of work after the resumption.

LYNCHERS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Fails to Reveal Identity of Leaders of Mob.

CORWELL RELEASED ON BAIL

Will Be Given Further Hearing—Belief Prevails That No One Will Be Punished for Deed—Mystery Surrounds Shooting of Peter Smith.

Wilmington, Del. June 25.—Arthur Corwell, who claims his home is in Hartford City, Ind., and who was arrested on the charge of complicity in the burning to death of George White, the negro assailant and murderer of Helen Bishop, was released on $5,000 bail. He will be given a further hearing.

Popular feeling in the tragedy of Monday night has not yet entirely disappeared. About 2,000 persons gathered in front of the city hall, where Corwell was confined, and made a demonstration. Extra police were on duty within the police station, and all officials were on hand in case of trouble. The crowd committed no overt act, however, beyond making a great noise. There were loud cries for the release of Corwell, to which the police paid no attention.

The verdict of the coroner's inquest did not implicate Corwell and the authorities decided to release him on $5,000 bail. This was furnished by Thomas McHugh, a wholesale liquor dealer. Word of this action soon reached the crowd and a great cheer was sent up, after which the people quickly dispersed.

When the inquest began the remains of White could not be found, and after a long search they were found wrapped in paper on an ice chest. White weighed about 200 pounds, but only five pounds of flesh and bone were left of him after the lynchings had concluded their work. The jury brought in the following verdict:

"Resolved, That George White came to his death between the hours of 10 p. m. of June 22, 1903, and 4 a. m. of June 23, 1903, by being burned in a field adjoining the road leading from Price's corner to the Ferris industrial school, by a party or parties unknown to this jury."

What the next step of the authorities will be is not known. The coroner's inquest having failed to reveal the identity of the leaders in the lynching, it is thought that the authorities are unable to proceed. Corwell declares he is innocent and says he can prove that he was not at the lynching.

The belief is growing here that no one will ever be punished for the work of the mob. Certain prominent citizens, although they deplore the occurrence, stand ready to raise a fund for the defense of any one who should be prosecuted for the offense.

Peter Smith, the boy who was shot while the mob was in the workhouse on Monday night, died as a result of his injuries. The boy was an Italian; who shot him no one seems to know. The jail guards are positive that he was not wounded by one of their number, claiming that they fired over the heads of the crowd. The jail officials think he was shot by some one in the crowd.

Examination by Specialists Shows Optic Nerve Has Been Entirely Destroyed.

New York, June 25.—Ira D. Sankey, the evangelist, is now hopelessly blind. Mrs. I. Allen Sankey, his daughter-in-law, said:

Mr. Sankey's trouble had been growing on him for the last two years as a result of an attack of trachoma.

Iowa Democratic State Ticket.

Des Moines, June 25.—The Democratic state convention placed in nomination the following ticket: Governor, J. B. Sullivan, Creston; lieutenant governor, D. B. Butler, Iowa City; judge of supreme court, John R. Caldwell, Tama; superintendent of public instruction, A. R. McCook, Howard; railroad commissioner, W. S. Porter, Harding. The convention refused to adopt a minority report signed by four members of the committee on resolutions adding to the platform reported by the seven members constituting the majority of the committee a plank reaffirming the Democratic national platform of 1900, and rejected another minority report adding to the plank demanding government control of railway charges, a provision that in case such control should not prove effective the national government should acquire ownership of railroads.

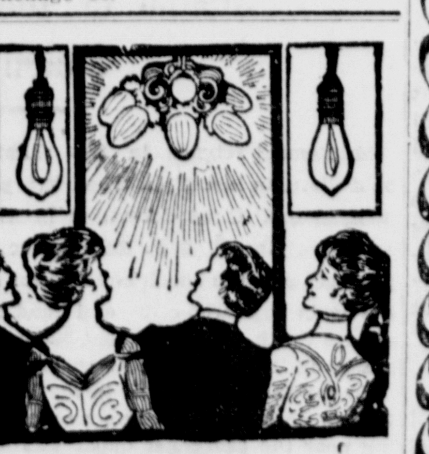

Engineer Killed at Post of Duty.

Cherryvale, Kan. June 25.—A St. Louis and San Francisco fast express crashed into two loaded coal cars near here while running at full speed. The engine and two dead baggage cars were telescoped. Engineer John McKenn was killed, Fireman Feist, of Fort Scott, was seriously hurt, and several passengers were bruised. The coal cars had got away from a switching crew and were rushing to meet the oncoming passenger train at a high speed when the passenger train rounded a bend. Before the speed of the passenger could be checked the collision came. Both men remained at their posts.

Extra Session of Kansas Legislature.

Topeka, Jan. 25.—The Kansas legislature convened in extra session to relieve the flood situation in the Kaw valley. Thirty-four flood bills were introduced in the house and nearly as many in the senate. A big fight was developed on the question of making an appropriation to relieve the flood sufferers, as well as to authorize the building of bridges. It was expected that Governor Bailey in his message would outline some plan of relief, but he did not, leaving that for the legislature to handle.

WEIGH YOURSELF BEFORE USING

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Mi-o-na, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation, since first introduced in East Liverpool and the remarkable results following its use, have made Will Reed such an enthusiastic believer in the great value of Mi-o-na, that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na will not make thin people fat, cure indigestion and restore health.

This is a strong guarantee, but Druggist Will Reed has seen so many of his customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons, become plump and well, solely through the use of Mi-o-na that he feels he cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good, rich blood, tones up the weakened digestive organs, helps the food to digest, and makes permanent cures in the worst cases of indigestion.

One of the pretty June weddings in Toronto was that of Miss Frances Dale Sloan to William Henry Robb. The groom is a son of James S. Robb, of Toronto, and is employed in the office of the Ohio Valley Sewer Pipe company.

ANNIHILATION OF DISTANCE.

How much nearer to each other the nations of the world seem to be today and really are today than was the case a few decades ago. When weeks and months were required for communications between the United States and Europe the countries of the old world appeared to be a long way off. Now the circumstances of old earth is belted with telegraph and cable lines in every possible direction. What happens today in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, South America and the great islands of the sea is made known to us tomorrow by great newspapers like the Chicago Record-Herald, whose foreign correspondents are located in every important city in the world outside of the United States. In addition to its own staff correspondents the Record-Herald enjoys the foreign news service of the New York Herald, famous for many years for the reliability of its foreign news, and also of that great co-operative news gathering organization, the Associated Press. No other daily newspaper in America possesses facilities so varied and extensive for covering the news of all nations.

SERVIANS WELCOME KING PETER I

Entry into Belgrade Marked by Enthusiasm in Which All Parties Participated.

Belgrade, June 25.—The entry of King Peter I into Belgrade was distinguished by a diplomatic boycott, yet his reception by the people was everywhere marked by heartiness in which all classes participated. The king's arrival has awakened the people out of the attitude of indifference which they had assumed since the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga. From the moment King Peter left the train and the band welcomed him with playing the Serbian national anthem, his progress was followed by prolonged cheers and exultant shouts of "Long live Peter the First" wherever he appeared.

The royal flag was hoisted over the new palace on the entry of the king into that building and the guards on duty at the old palace marched over and went on duty at the new palace. All the late King Alexander's domestics have been installed in similar capacities in King Peter's household.

Change of Venue in Tillman Case.

Columbia, S. C., June 25.—Argument on the motion for a change of venue in the case of James H. Tillman, indicted for murder, was concluded and Judge Townsend at once announced his decision that the change should be granted. The belief is that Judge Townsend will name either Saluda or Lexington county. In either case the trial will not take place for six weeks or two months.

SIR THOMAS ARRIVES

Hearty Welcome Accorded Distinguished Visitor by State and Nation.

RETURN OF J. PIERPONT MORGAN

Scenes Accompanying Their Landing Rather Out of the Ordinary—Lipton Exhibits Rabbit's Foot and Is Sanguine of Success.

New York, June 25.—The Oceanic brought Sir Thomas Lipton and J. P. Morgan, and the scenes accompanying their arrival both in the bay and at the dock were rather out of the ordinary. Sir Thomas was welcomed officially by state and nation.

As the Oceanic was towed in there came as escort the Privateer, with the Erin and the Corsair, Mr. Morgan's yacht. On the Privateer was a committee representing the city, state and nation, which included General Chaffee and Adjutant General Corbin.

Sir Thomas, once ashore, exhibiting his rabbit's foot, said he felt sure success awaited the Shamrock III. His reception was most flattering.

"Will you match Shamrock I against Columbia?" was asked.

"I will do anything for the good of the sport. I would rather not commit myself to any arrangements before the races. After the race I will be ready for anything."

"Will you try again if you do not lift the cup this time?"

"Don't try to dishearten me before the race. I almost think it will be my duty to try again. I don't think that I will have to try again, though, for I have the best boat and the best skipper that Britain can produce. If Reliance wins it will be because she is the best boat ever built to defend the cup."

"After I return from Washington I shall spend my time on the Erin. I am going to try and have a look at the Newport races next week. During the cup races Will Fife, who designed Shamrock III and who was on board the Oceanic with me, will be on the cup yacht to assist Captain Wringe sailing her. Fife is the best yachtsman in England. I, too, will be on board Shamrock during the races, as I have never missed a sail on her yet. I can only say again that I am confident of victory."

Mr. Morgan as usual had great trouble in dodging cameras. Again as usual he did not talk further than to say that there will be no reorganization of the International Mercantile Marine company.

Forming a party with Mr. Morgan on the Oceanic were Bruce Ismay, chairman of the White Star line; Henry Wilding, European manager of the International Mercantile Marine company, and Sir Clinton Dawkins, who is vice president of the same company as well as the European partner of Mr. Morgan.

After landing Mr. Morgan held a conference with C. A. Griscom and G. W. Perkins, after which he boarded the Corsair, going directly to his home at Highland Falls.

Sir Thomas Lipton was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria by two score of his friends. Major General Henry C. Corbin presided. Among those present were Assistant United States Treasurer Hamilton Fish, Collector Stranahan, Senator Fairbanks, Charles M. Schwab, General Chaffee, William Fife, John H. Flagler, Warner Miller and Ferdinand W. Peck, of Chicago.

SITUATION IN THE PHILIPPINES

People Taking Kindly to American Methods and Government—Public School System.

Washington, June 25.—Judge E. Finley Johnson, one of the justices of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, discussed with the president the situation in the islands. Judge Smith recently was elevated from the circuit to the supreme bench.

"During the two years I was on the circuit bench," said he, "I tried 1,500 cases. The Philippine people, despite occasional outbreaks, are taking kindly to American methods and to American government. I think it is a safe assertion that three-fourths of the people would not accept any other form of government, even if they had the chance. The greatest monument to American government in the Philippines is the public school system. When the United States took possession of Philippine affairs in 1898 there was not a single common school in the islands outside of Manila. Today there is not a city or town of any size in the islands without its common school and many pupils. The beneficial results of this system can be appreciated very readily."

Killed by Baseball.

Washington, June 25.—Robert L. Shannon, aged 22 years, was struck by a baseball on the Georgetown university athletic grounds and died with in 30 seconds. The ball was thrown from the infield by G. W. Iddings and struck Shannon at the juncture of the brain and the spinal column. Iddings was prostrated when he learned what happened and was removed to the hospital, where his condition is serious.

The calamity howling habit is strong when once it gets fastened on a party or an individual. The county democracy at Lisbon was "seeing things" yesterday and "viewing them with alarm." Everybody will admit that there are some conditions existing that might be bettered, but no sane man will look to the Democratic party to work a change for the better. The experiment has been tried, both in Ohio and in the nation, with results that were well-nigh calamitous.

Morgan has returned home and neither the money market nor the shore tipped when he landed.

The gas company complains that council took snap judgment on it.

What sort of judgment did the trust take when it promulgated its edict, raising prices without asking the consent or wishes of anybody interested?

Kansas farmers want 50,000 men to help in their harvesting. They gathered in about $215,000,000 worth of crops last year and hope to do better this season. No wonder Populism is a lost trade out there.

It may be some consolation to the weather grumblers to learn that Europe has had quite as wet and disagreeable weather as America has experienced.

The Iowa Democrats refused to endorse the Chicago platform. Iowa Democrats don't cut much ice, but they know what hurt the rest of their brethren.

Such scenes as were enacted at the Democratic convention at Lisbon are calculated to further deepen public disgust with the Democratic party.

East Liverpool Democracy may not be large or influential, but when it comes to furnishing excitement at a convention it gets there with both feet.

Maybe the gas trust wants to restore old King Coal to his throne.

Honestly, Mr. Walsh, it wasn't worth fighting for.

ASSESSING BOARD'S WORK

Rapid Progress Made in Straightening Out the Pennsylvania Avenue Puzzle.

The Pennsylvania avenue assessing board is progressing rapidly with the work and does not anticipate serious trouble in the execution of the duties imposed upon it. The members state that there will be some difference in their report, as compared with the report of the former board, but that it will not be great. They have assessed some of the property higher than the rate imposed by the former board and some of it lower.

They are unable at the present time to announce when they will have the work completed.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING A LARGE CITY BUILDING WHERE FIRE STATION IS

"On the second floor arrange quarters for the mayor, city auditor, city treasurer, city engineer and the city solicitor. It can be done and they will have spacious rooms. Provide on the third floor a council chamber, a room for the water works, the board of public service, the board of health and one for any board or body of men called upon to do special work for the city. The stories above can be arranged for business offices and a mass convention hall can be fitted up. The offices will undoubtedly be in demand and will rent for a good price. A vault can be added to the building for the protection of valuable documents, books, etc.

"In consideration of the fact that the officials now occupying the city hall are hampered by closeness until it is almost impossible for them to transact business and that, poor as it is, money is being expended upon it continually it would be a saving to erect a new building, if for no other reason. The office occupied by the water works is paid for at a big rent. The money expended for this office could be thrown into the new improvement and would assist in eliminating the material. Rent collected from the offices provided in the new building would be no small figure and beyond a doubt it would more than pay the interest on the money expended for the erection of the building. In the end enough money would be realized to wipe out the entire amount expended.

"A new building on the site, which fronts both on East Market and Broadway, would be centrally located and would be a most desirable location for both office purposes and for the transaction of public business.

"It will not be necessary to abandon the present city hall. It can be repaired and converted into a schoolhouse. It would make an elegant four room building for that purpose and could be so arranged without much expense. And more school accommodation will soon be a necessity."

COUNCIL MUST DECIDE UPON IMPROVEMENTS

Important Opinion of the City Solicitor on City Hall Renovation.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson has reached a decision on the question as to who has the right to have the city building improved. He has the decision in writing and will present it to council at its next regular meeting. After a thorough investigation of the provisions of the code on the subject he has decided that the board of public service is not empowered to order an improvement made. It is authorized to repair any defect, providing the cost will not exceed $500, without presenting the question to council, but when an improvement is to be made council must decide upon it. However, after this is done the service board can superintend the work. The solicitor's decision was asked for by council, and is a most important one.

A VOYAGE OF LOVE.

A Story of Fact That Reads Like Romance.

A VERY BRAVE OLD PIONEER.

How a Voyage to New Orleans by the Hero Helped a Worthy Minister and Relieved an Entire Community.

Out of the dust-covered annals of old frontier devotion the writer has gathered the incidents of this story. It is a tale of simple self-offering, one of the kind to be put in a choice scrapbook and read when one's affairs go awry and discouragement is creeping in.

In 1780 the Rev. Joseph Smith was settled over the Presbyterian congregations at Cross Creek and Upper Buffalo, in Washington county, Pennsylvania. He was a man of great learning and piety, and won a position in the hearts of the hardy frontiersmen such as few men are ever able to conquer. The Wetzel, Bradys and Poes, and others as famous in border annals, were among his hearers, and the Poe brothers were among those who signed the call sent to him and were his regular supporters. As the promised salary was not large the good minister had to buy a farm on credit, support himself by its produce, and promise to pay for it with the salary which he was to receive. Under such stern conditions did his labors begin.

Mr. Smith was a minister fitted to the place in which he found himself, and in a few years he was the best loved man in that portion of the border. But love could not meet financial demands, and finally he found himself in a critical situation. Indian wars and other evils had so disorganized frontier society that the people were three years in arrears with his salary, and he was served with notice to give up his farm or pay for it by a certain time. This became known to his people, who realized that if their minister lost his farm they would have to lose him. A meeting was held at which the evil condition was fully discussed. Many plans for relief were suggested, but none could be carried out. The people had no money, and could not put their plans into execution. In despair the gathering dispersed, with the agreement that another meeting would be held in a week.

There was a miller in that part of Washington county whose name was Moore. He promised that he would grind free of cost all wheat which the settlers would give to relieve the situation. This became known and the grain began to pour in. About a month later the flour was ready for market. Then a really serious problem presented itself. The nearest profitable market was New Orleans, then farther away in difficulty of access than any Chinese city is today. The people assembled and took up the question: Who would take the flour to market? This meant a tedious journey in a flatboat through the hostile Indian country to the Spanish possessions at the mouth of the Mississippi. It would now be hard to find any place in the world a journey so taxing and so dangerous as the one proposed. After long discussion the people sadly realized that the whole project must fail at this point for lack of a man, when one William Smiley, a revered elder in the Upper Buffalo church, well up toward 70 years of age, arose and declared that to serve the church and retain their minister among them he would undertake the perilous journey.

The people were astonished, but accepted the self-sacrificing offer. By promises of liberal payment two young men were persuaded to go with the old man. On the appointed day nearly the entire congregation, led by the minister, walked through the forest 15 miles to the Ohio. On the shore a prayer was made, a hymn was sung, and then the old elder cried: "Unto the cable and let us see what the Lord will do for us!" The boat with its precious cargo floated slowly out of sight, and the people returned homeward, wondering what the outcome would be. Slowly the time passed, with of course no word of good or evil from the church's messenger. At last, when from out the silent western forests no tidings had come for more than nine months, the settlers began to feel sure that Elder Smiley had been lost.

One Sunday morning soon after they found the brave old man in his accustomed place at worship, and a meeting was appointed for the hearing of his report. There he told them how he had made the journey in safety and had sold the flour at New Orleans for $27 a barrel. Then he poured out before them such a heap of good gold coins as had never before been seen among so frugal a people. The minister's four years' arrearage was paid up and one year's salary was advanced to him. Elder Smiley was paid $300 and the two young men

A SCREAMING TIME
ON THE FOURTH

Wellsville Prepared to Celebrate in the Lively, Old Fashioned Way.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Fourth of July meeting was held last night in the council chamber, Mayor Fogo presiding. Final arrangements were made for a monster demonstration here on the Fourth, committees on fire works, ordinance and parades having been appointed.

Red, white and blue suits have been provided for 200 boys, who will march in the parade, carrying flags.

Magley's band, of East Liverpool, has been engaged to furnish the music, and it is expected that the East Liverpool Sons of Veterans will be here, 50 strong, including some of the department officials.

Sherman Quail, A. S. Rogers, E. S. Martin, Morris Murchland and Stephen Large were appointed the committee on sports and an attractive program is being prepared.

The uniform rank of the Colored Knights of Pythias of Steubenville will take part, with the colored K. of P. band of East Liverpool. Rev. L. A. Upshaw will give dinner and supper in the hose and hook and ladder room of the city building on that day, and elaborate preparations will be made to take care of a vast multitude of visitors.

The secret societies have signified their willingness to take part in the exercises. The fire works will be given from a barge in the middle of the river. H. H. Whitacre and A. S. Rogers are the committee in charge.

The meeting was one of the most notable ever held here, and everything points to a screaming time on the glorious Fourth.

TAXES TO BE LOWER
AND PEOPLE REJOICE

Wellsville Now in Shape to Buy Its Own Bonds for the First Time.

The tax commissioners met yesterday afternoon and ratified the tax levy ordinance submitted to council by Mayor Fogo and passed by that body, with the exception of the item of the 10 mills asked by the commission itself to apply to the bonded indebtedness and interest thereon. This was reduced to 5.9 mills. With that modification the ordinance will be referred to council for final action tomorrow night.

The tax commissioners merged the various funds of the city—15 in all—into a sinking fund, and when this was done it was found that the city had to its credit, and immediately available, the snug sum of $25,656.57. Of this amount $4,600 was at once invested in the bonds issued to pave Maple alley, and thus for the first time in its history did the city become the purchaser of its own bonds.

City Auditor McGregor was instructed to submit a list of all outstanding bonds with a view of the tax commissioners purchasing them as rapidly as possible.

Wellsville was never in better condition from a taxation standpoint than at present, and there is an especially good feeling among the officials. Taxes will be considerably lower than for many years previous.

SEIZED BY A RUFFIAN

Woman Fainted After Being Attacked By a Man on the Street.

The West End is being terrorized by a Jack the Grabber, and women are afraid to venture out unattended after dark. While two prominent young ladies were passing the Second Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, a burly brute sprang from the shadows of the building and caught one of the young women by the arm and attempted to drag her from the sidewalk. She screamed, as did her companion, and the culprit only released his hold after hearing the approaching footsteps of rescuers.

The young woman fainted and during the excitement incident to her restoration, the grabber made good his escape.

It has long been a notorious fact that the West End is not afforded the police protection its area demands and the residents of that section will take up the matter with council.

WOMAN HELD UP

Used Her Umbrella on a Purse Snatcher And Compelled Him to Flee.

While returning to her home from shopping expedition yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Nelson Kelly was attacked by an unknown man and an attempt was made to rob her. Mrs. Kelly was badly frightened when the man made a grab for her pocketbook, but succeeded in beating him off with an umbrella she carried.

The matter was reported to the police, and a lookout is being maintained for the would-be thief. The attempted holdup occurred on the hill above Steubenville street, and the place is being closely watched.

HUGE STONE FELL

Striking a Timber And Giving Workman a Terrible Blow.

James Cotton, employed on the C. & P. improvements being made near this city, met with an accident this morning which will lay him up indefinitely. Large stones were being handled by means of a derrick. One of these became unmanageable and falling upon a huge timber, hurled it high in the air. One end of the log struck Cotton on top of the head, rendering him unconscious and inflicting a severe scalp wound.

Dr. Hutchison was summoned and dressed the wound, after which the injured man was removed to his home.

SOCIAL EVENTS

YOUNG-SPONCELER

A Prominent Beaver Falls Couple Wedded—Many Guests From This City.

One of the most prominent social functions which has occurred in Beaver Falls for some time was the marriage yesterday of Miss Fern Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Young, and Mr. Frank J. Sponceler, both social leaders in Beaver Falls society. The wedding consisted of an impressive and beautiful ceremony and took place at the home of the bride's parents on Ninth avenue, which was decorated in artistic manner with tropical plants, sweet peas and carnations blended beautifully with pink and green ribbons. Promptly at high noon, to the strains of Nevin's "Narcissus" and "Lohengrin," the bridal party entered the parlor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wolfe, pastor of the First M. E. church of Beaver. The only attendants in the bridal party were the maid of honor and best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream voile over taffeta silk, en traine, trimmed with applique medallions and presented a charming appearance.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The bride's table was arranged in a very pretty manner, white satin ribbons being draped from a central point in the ceiling above to the corners of the table, where they were caught in bunches of smilax and bows of the ribbon.

About 60 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sponceler will take an extended wedding trip to Cleveland and from thence will spend some time on the lakes.

Among those who attended from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins, Mr. Larkins being a cousin of the bride, William Larkins, Mrs. Lizzie Larkins, Frank Fowler, Mrs. Emma Meeks, Mrs. John T. Fowler and George F. Fowler.

Mrs. Sponceler is well known in this city, where she made many friends while visiting several summers with Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins.

W. R. C. ENTERTAINED

The Organization Spent a Delightful Day at Mrs. Herbert's Summer Home.

The Woman's Relief Corps were given a most delightful entertainment and outing yesterday at the home of Mrs. Rachael Herbert at Oak Grove camp ground. The entire day from 9 a. m. until late in the evening was devoted to pleasure. About 25 members of the W. R. C. were present, each one bringing some dainty edible to add to the bounteous lunch and dinner which were served.

The chief diversions of the afternoon consisted of fancy work, bowling and the exchange of social greetings. A special feature of the afternoon was the singing of "America" by special request of Mrs. Vorey, who is one of the older and most highly esteemed members of this important organization.

Whitaker-Baker. The marriage of Miss Dora Whitaker and Mr. Taylor Baker was solemnized

last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Fourth street by Squire McCarron in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their future home in Steubenville, where Mr. Baker is engaged in business.

Entertained Friends. Mr. John Vorey entertained a few friends last evening at his home on East Fourth street in honor of Miss Mabel Laughlin, who is visiting from Cambridge Springs. The evening was delightfully spent in the playing of caroms and other games.

Annual Dance. Hollenden Club Ball Friday Evening Promises to Be a Very Fine Affair.

The first annual dance of the Hollenden club promises to be one of the leading society functions of the season. The affair will be held at Rock Springs next Friday evening, and a large number of invitations have been issued. This being the first effort of the comparatively new social society special pains are being taken to make the dance one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have been invited.

The officers of the club will see to it that the large crowds are well taken care of, and arrangements have been made to furnish entertainment throughout the entire evening. There will not be a dull moment in the program, the main feature of which will be the music. The pavilion will be appropriately decorated with club colors and flowers. A large number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Pleasantly Entertained. Miss Saling, of Pittsburgh, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cassidy, Avondale street, last evening was the guest of honor at a delightful entertainment, at which a large number of friends were present.

The Duke of Wellington wanted a certain piece of work done and instructed an officer of the Royal engineers to do it. After examination the officer informed the duke that it was impossible.

The duke sent for another officer, a much younger man and attached to another division of the army. This officer did what the duke required.

The next morning there appeared in the "orders of the day" the following epigrammatic note: "He who in war fails to do what he undertakes may always plead accident, which invariably attends military affairs; but he who declares a thing to be impossible which is subsequently accomplished registers his own incapacity."

Most Expensive Tree in the World. Probably the most expensive tree in the world is in the City of London, on the corner of Cheapside and Wood street, about midway between the Bank of England and St. Paul's. It is an enormous oak, and is said to be 100 years old. It is protected by a clause in the deed of the property which forbids destruction of tree or branches. Architects were compelled to plan a rather peculiar building to avoid the branches. There it stands in the corner of one of the busiest streets in London, occupying ground of enormous value—and positively the only tree in the City of London outside of the parks.

EMPEROR WELCOMED

Plenty of Powder Burned Firing Salutes in Honor of His Majesty.

AMERICAN OFFICERS RECEIVED

Unprecedented Courtesy Paid United States Navy—Crews of American Vessels Hospitably Entertained on Shore by German Sailors.

Kiel, Prussia, June 25.—Emperor William arrived on board the Hohenzollern. When the imperial yacht was sighted steaming into Kiel harbor she had the stars and stripes flying from the aftermast, and as she sailed by Rear Admiral Cotton's flagship, the Kearsarge, the imperial colors floating at the stern were dipped three times. This courtesy being without precedent in the German navy caused Rear Admiral Cotton, at audience he had later with the emperor, to thank his majesty in the name of the president of the United States for the honor shown to the American navy.

The emperor's entrance into the harbor was the occasion for a tremendous cannonade, each of the 32 warships firing 33 guns, the Americans observing the German regulation for honoring the sovereign. As the smoke from the thousand guns blew aside the Hohenzollern entered the lane of warships, at the upper end of which were the American vessels. The emperor stood alone on the upper bridge. The crews manning the cross trees, turrets and sides of the American ships gave his majesty three cheers as the yacht passed, which he acknowledged by saluting continuously, as the imperial colors were flown from the aftermast of each American warship. Aboard the Kearsarge was a party of Americans, including Ambassador Tower, R. R. Ritt, secretary of the Berlin embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mrs. Potts, wife of the United States naval attaché.

Earlier in the day Rear Admiral Cotton had received a telegram from the emperor saying his majesty would be pleased to receive him and the other American commanders as soon as possible after his arrival. Consequently the rear admiral assembled the captains on his flagship and just as the Hohenzollern was attached to her mooring buoy Rear Admiral Cotton's barge reached the yacht's gangway. Captain Usedom met Rear Admiral Cotton, Captains Walker, Cornwall and McCrea, Lieutenant Hussey, of the admiral's staff, and Naval Attaché Potts at the head of the gangway and presented them to Emperor William, who was standing two or three steps away, with his suite grouped behind him. His majesty shook hands and conversed for a minute with each of the American officers, saying how glad he was to see them in German waters. Turning to Rear Admiral Cotton, the emperor said:

"You were in the monitor at Hampton Roads, were you not?"

"Not in the monitor, sir," replied the admiral, "but in another ship which stuck in a sand bank."

His majesty alluded to other incidents in Admiral Cotton's career and said he wished to visit the Kearsarge and would be pleased to take lunch aboard her. Rear Admiral Cotton and his captains then retired.

The emperor's arrival was an hour later than expected, and his majesty, therefore, did not visit the Kearsarge. Leave was given to 350 men from the American crews to go on shore. They were taken in charge individually and in groups by the German sailors, who treated them in the most hospitable manner.

PEONAGE PREVAILS IN GEORGIA

Negro in Debt Is Caught, Whipped and Put to Work—Case Tried at Macon.

Macon, Ga., June 25.—In United States court Judge Emory Spear imposed a fine of $1,000 each on three young men, William Shy, Arthur Clawson and Robert Turner, for holding a negro in involuntary servitude. He suspended the fine under conditions, and in so doing said:

"In view of the fact that it is the first crime of the kind which ever has occurred in Georgia and because of the frank confession of the young men, sentence is imposed in order to convince the public that the purpose of the court is to warn and deter others from like crime. During good behavior fine is suspended upon payment of $100 by each."

The offense was that the young men, who are prominent farmers, caught a negro who was in debt to them, gave him a whipping and made him go to work for them.

Judge Spear said that the problem of the times could not be solved by harsh measures and wanted it distinctly understood that the laws of Georgia were against such treatment. Montgomery, Ala., June 25.—In United States court J. W. Pace, a prominent planter of Tallapoosa coun-

Demurrers were filed in all the cases, which were overruled, and Pace then pleaded guilty in all the cases and appealed to the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans, giving bond in the sum of $5,000. The sentence of the court was five years' imprisonment in each case, to be served concurrently.

STRIKE LEADS TO BLOODSHED

Guards Fire Into Crowd of Sympathizers, Wounding Six Men, Two Seriously.

Richmond, Va., June 25.—Six men were wounded, two of them seriously, by street railway company guards, who fired into a crowd of strike sympathizers just outside the city limits. A car guarded by employees of the company, armed with shotguns, was standing at that point. There had been a big crowd there all the evening. The company claims that the guards were fired on first. At any rate, they fired into the crowd and a brisk fusillade followed.

While this was taking place in the West Side exciting scenes were enacted in the East End, where efforts were made to operate cars under the protection of the militia. All sorts of missiles were hurled at the cars and obstructions placed on the track. Finally the cars under the pilotage of a detachment of the Richmond Howitzers, with a galling gun, were taken to the barns.

Five companies of the Seventy-first regiment, from Norfolk and Newport News, are on the way to this city to reinforce the troops already here. The mayor has issued an address asking women and children to keep off the streets.

Three militiamen were wounded by the accidental discharge of a rifle. One of them was taken to a hospital, but is not dangerously injured.

MRS. M'KINLEY'S NIECE MARRIED

Miss Ida Barber Becomes Wife of Luther Day at Canton—Wealth of Wedding Presents.

Canton, O., June 25.—At 7 o'clock Wednesday evening Miss Ida Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barber and niece of Mrs. McKinley, became the wife of Luther, second son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. William R. Day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of several hundred guests.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Barber, and the groom by his brother, Stephen. For the wedding dinner the bride's table was set in the dining room and was surrounded by the members of the Day and Barber families.

When the first niece of the McKinnleys was married the late president said that all should have the same bridal presents when their turns came, and ordered for Mabel McKinley, now Mrs. Dr. Baer, a massive silver service. That was duplicated by Mrs. McKinley for Mrs. Mary Barber last fall and again for the present bride. There was a wealth of other presents, including a set of china and gold coffee cups from Senator and Mrs. Hanna.

Agent Sewed Money in Coat Lining.

St. Louis, June 25.—It was brought out through statements made to Circuit Attorney Folk by witnesses called to testify before the grand jury in connection with the St. Louis street car consolidation deal in the legislature that the legislative agent of the street car companies took $150,000, sewed in the lining of his coat, and turned it over to two agents at Jefferson City for the alleged purpose of buying votes. This was during the legislative session of 1899. The names of the agent and the individuals in this deal are known to the circuit attorney, but are withheld for the present.

THE PRESS AROUSED

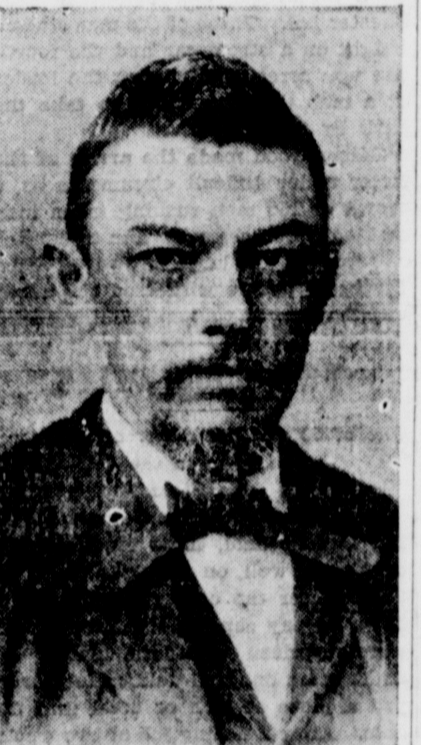

WHY THE PENNSYLVANIA EDITORS ARE INDIGNANT.

Keystone State's New Libel Law Called a "Press Muzzler"—How Newspapers May Be Affected—Governor Pennypacker.

Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker, who has aroused the universal indignation of the press of the Keystone State by signing the stringent libel law recently passed by the legislature, has been criticised unsparingly by the editors for his attempt at "press muzzling," as they term the new law.

The law provides that civil actions may be brought to recover damages resulting from negligence on the part of the owner, proprietor or managing editor of a newspaper in the ascertainment of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens. It is further provided that "if it shall be shown that the publication complained of resulted from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, manager or editor in the ascertainment of the facts or in the publication thereof compensatory damages may be recovered for injuries to business and reputation resulting from such publication as well as damages for the physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties, and whenever in any such action it shall be shown that the matter complained of is libelous and that such libelous matter has been given special prominence by the use of pictures, cartoons, headlines, displayed type or any other matter calculated to specially attract attention the jury shall have the right to award punitive damages against the defendant or defendants."

In the statement issued by Governor Pennypacker approving the law and giving his reasons for signing it he cited the publication of a cartoon in a recent issue of a Philadelphia newspaper. "The cartoon," the governor said, "put into words that the press asserts to the world that it is above the law and greater in strength than the government. No self respecting people will permit such an attitude to be long maintained. In England a century ago the offender would have been drawn and quartered and his head stuck on a pole without the gates. In America this is the kind of arrogance that 'goeth before a fall.'

The newspapers have announced their determination to continue on exactly the same lines hitherto followed, ignoring the existence of the new law. It is the intention of the papers to force a test case at once and carry the constitutionality of the act to the supreme court.

Governor Pennypacker is a man of peculiar characteristics. Much of his spare time has been given to the study of the history of Pennsylvania, but it is a mistake to assume that his laborious researches into colonial or Revolutionary history have prevented him

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That this condition goes on uncorrected for is almost criminal, when the well-known, time-tried and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. M. C. Murchland, of Commerce street, Wellsville, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in my case proved themselves an excellent nerve and general tonic. I was run down, nervous and not sleeping well. The medicine, however, gave me bodily strength, nerve steadiness and restful sleep, consequently I feel I can't recommend it too highly to others who suffer in a like manner."

THE SENTIMENT OF JEALOUSY

By P. MANTEGAZZA, Italian Anthropologist

WHY, when love is offended, should we invent a new sentiment, jealousy? ALL SENTIMENTS, WHEN THEY ARE SATISFIED, BRING US CLOSER TO THE ONE WHO HAS GIVEN THEM SATISFACTION, lead us to lavish caresses on him, to do good to him. Every wounded sentiment, on the contrary, leads us to return the offense, to do ill to him who caused the offense.

If by jealousy we mean the pain suffered when we feel that we are not loved, or have been deceived, EVERY HEART THAT LOVES OUGHT TO BE JEALOUS, just as whoever loves country and mother cannot see them offended without suffering pain. But if we take it to mean that tyrannical suspicion which leads us to torment the person who possesses us I would say, on the contrary, THAT WE NOT ONLY CAN LOVE, BUT CAN LOVE BETTER, WITHOUT BEING JEALOUS, and that we cannot love and experience jealousy.

THE DEATHBLOW TO THE OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

By Professor DEMETRIUS C. BOULGER of London

RUSSIA'S continued occupation of Manchuria will go on undisturbed. IF SHE EVACUATES ONE PLACE IT WILL BE ONLY TO GO TO ANOTHER A FEW MILES OFF. Her officials will be as supreme there as on Russian soil. No one else will have any rights. That innocent institution, the Russo-Chinese bank, will receive the dues of the customs and account for them to the Russian government or resident.

What will be the moral of this? It is one that the most timid of ministers need not fear to apply to the general position in China. Russia's retention of Manchuria signifies A DEATHBLOW TO THE POLICY OF "THE OPEN DOOR."

The loss of that important and valuable province carries with it so serious a breach of the integrity of China that it becomes forthwith a mere illusion.

CHINA MINUS MANCHURIA AND MONGOLIA IS NO LONGER THE SAME STATE THAT EXISTED BEFORE THE BOXER MOVEMENT.

from taking an active interest in current affairs.

His energy and capacity for work are remarkable. He exhibits in his heavy frame and great muscular development some of the characteristics of his Dutch ancestry. He was born in Phenixville and even as a boy turned his attention to the colonial history of his state. Additional zest was given to his researches by the fact that his own people were active in the civil and military events that built up the great state of which he is now governor.

Fourteen years ago he was appointed by Governor Beaver to be judge of the court of common pleas and was subsequently elected to that office for a term of ten years and re-elected for another term.

Governor Pennypacker has a wife and four children. His son was graduated a year or so ago from the University of Pennsylvania. The governor was himself graduated from this institution in 1896.

By his act in putting the new libel law of Pennsylvania into effect Governor Pennypacker has antagonized the press of the state. What influence it will have on his political future is problematical. Judging from the senti-

WE MUST REPEAT

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Granted a Patent—Edwin L. Yewell, patent solicitor of Washington, D. C., reports a patent issued this week to Allan M. Fisher, of this city, for a gas regulator.

No Games of Chance—Mayor Weaver yesterday refused a license to a man who wanted to run a game on the street. The man admitted it was a game of chance and that settled it. The mayor says no schemes of that sort will be licensed.

Case Reported Hopeless—Mrs. J. W. Gipper left this morning for Pittsburgh to visit Mrs. M. B. Johnston, who is so seriously ill in the Presbyterian hospital. It was reported yesterday that Mrs. Johnston is declining fast and that she is expected to die at any time.

Visited the Orphans—Rev. J. G. Reinartz has returned from Zellenople, Pa., where, as one of the board of visitors, he visited the Lutheran orphan's home. It was the annual donation day and fully 2,500 Lutherans were present. In this well managed home are about 90 children and helpers. Director J. J. Kribbs and wife celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary as managers of the institution yesterday, and were the recipients of many valuable gifts.

Elected a Delegate—An interesting and enthusiastic business meeting of the members of the First M. E. church was held last evening following the prayer meeting for the purpose of electing a law delegate to the East Ohio conference which meets at Akron, O., in September. William Kent acted as chairman of the meeting and H. Clark as secretary. It was unanimously decided to have Christian Metch attend the conference as lay delegate and Charles H. Boyce as alternate.

Pronounced Incurable—Word has been received by friends in this city from J. J. Langley, who went to Battle Creek, Mich., several weeks ago. Mr. Langley has been afflicted with lung trouble for several years, and the object in sending him to the Battle Creek sanitarium was the hope that his health might be improved. Instead of any change for the better he has grown steadily worse, and the relatives here are prepared for bad news at any time. The Langley family has had more than its share of ill luck, but it seems that they are not through with it yet. Mr. Langley has been pronounced incurable by his physicians.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special.)—The large double arch on the square, erected as part of the centennial decorations, may be left as a permanent fixture. It has been suggested that it be equipped with galvanized iron and stone foundations.

IMMENSE CROWD AT COOPER'S

Again Last Night On Brunt's Hill.

A RARE ENTERTAINMENT

By This Marvelous Man of Medicine and Unique Ideas of Advertising.

The free show, promenade concert and medical lecture given by Colonel Cooper and his superb company of capable performers and musicians nightly furnishes rare entertainment and instruction for thousands of people of this city.

The crowd last night was simply a mighty throng of interested people who heard with rapture the popular classical selections by Cooper's own band and thoroughly enjoyed the high-class vaudeville performance. Cooper was in an oratorical mood and his lecture was one of the best ever delivered. He expatiated upon the incomparable virtues of Dr. Cooper's New Discovery—showing in an able and convincing manner how it renovated the human system, purifying the blood of all disorder and restoring the health and happiness of those who for years had suffered torture of both body and mind. Cooper's talk was so convincing—such a perfect diagnosis of the ills of those who stood before him, that scores raised their hand for the wonderful medicine when the call was made. As the supply of the remedy is nightly limited a great many were obliged to go away disappointed.

A new supply, however, will be received by express this morning and it can be found at the show grounds. Consultation is absolutely free in every case.

There will be an entire change of program tonight and you are invited to attend and enjoy yourself.

Mr. Snyder, who lives at 350 Calcutta road, was cured of deafness by an application of Dr. Cooper's quick relief. He is well known in this city.

The sales parlors are located at Mrs. Buckley's, 301 Lincoln avenue, two squares from the Diamond.

SOUTH SIDE

OF REAL MERIT

Is the Performance Given at Rock Springs Park Theatre This Week.

It is not often that an aggregation of as much real merit is gathered together in one house as that which Manager Strauss has given the people at Rock Springs theatre this week. There is not a dull turn in the entire program and several of the artists are deserving of the highest praise. The opening turn is given by Hawkins & Harris, and they do it well. Miss Gladys Van, as a comedienne and singer of coon songs, has been a general favorite. Mr. and Mrs. Thorne, Miss Temple and Mr. Clark are extremely funny in the sketch "An Up-to-Date Flat." The piece is free from vulgarity and the audience is kept in a continuous laugh. As an impersonator and vocalist, Dave Nowlin has few equals and certainly no superiors on the vaudeville stage this season. The range of his voice is wonderful. He has been assisted this week by George Bevington, a local boy, who has on more than one occasion demonstrated that he has talent in the comedy line. For actual originality, Eddie Doyle, the celebrated juggler, cannot be beaten. The present bill will not change until next Monday.

FOUR ARRESTS MADE AND SOME EXCITEMENT

A Crowd Made it Unpleasant For Officer Good, Who Drew His Revolver.

As the result of a fight waged at Rock Springs park this afternoon at about 2 o'clock, four of the Pittsburgh excursionists were arrested and placed on a street car and placed in the Chester jail. Three of the men started a fight on a street car and the fourth one was arrested for being the leader of a mob that attempted to take the park by storm.

Officer Good made the arrest of the latter under difficult circumstances, a crowd of 150 men rushing in on him, making it necessary for him to flourish a revolver. A large crowd of East Liverpool people witnessed the affray and they say it was an exciting scene.

TWO GOOD WELLS

One of 60 and the Other of 25 Barrel Production, in the Carson Field.

Freshwater & Carson, operating in the Carson field, have brought in a 60 barrel well on the Carson farm. Last winter the concern, when about down to pay sand on the No. 2 well, were surprised to find that during the night some one had deliberately dropped a piece of iron or steel into the hole. After a fishing job of two weeks they had to suspend operations. They were apparently satisfied that the location was a good one and two weeks ago moved the rig about 12 feet from the old hole and started drilling again.

E. A. Freshwater, in the same field, drilling No. 1 on the Ewing farm, struck a 25 barrel well on Saturday, which is keeping up its showing.

A CREW OF MEN AT WORK ON SMITH'S NEW RAILWAY

Operations Begun This Morning Regardless of the Injunction Proceedings
Now Pending.

PROPOSED TO RUSH ITS COMPLETION

A large force of men were put to work this morning on the street railway of C. A. Smith and his associates at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and East Fifth street. The workmen have made considerable progress, and from present indications there will be no delay. The company has secured the consent of a great majority of the property owners on East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, and no trouble is anticipated from that source.

Mr. Smith was seen at noon today and said:

"We are simply going ahead with the work in accordance with the franchise granted to our company by the city. There has been no change of plans nor alteration in the original intentions. We have the materials and equipment on the ground, and will push the work to completion as rapidly as possible. As far as the suit now pending in court is concerned, no attention whatever is being paid to it nor is the prospect for an adverse decision causing us the least anxiety."

"The application for an injunction has been made, but until it has been heard and a decision rendered we will proceed with the building of the road. The rails, ties and some of the other equipment have been delivered, and it was the intention to begin when these preliminaries had been arranged, so that the threatened injunction has not delayed the task in hand a single hour. Unless enjoined or prevented from so doing by unforeseen difficulties, there will be no cessation of active operations until the line is entirely completed and in actual operation."

Mr. Smith appeared to be in dead earnest and was not in the least concerned as to the outcome of the proceedings of the property owners in the vicinity of East Fifth street. According to the franchise the board of public service could not do otherwise than to give its consent to open the street. The force now at work will be increased as fast as the progress of the work will permit, and it is confidently expected that the road will be completed to the East End within a short time.

SALOON KEEPERS ARE SUBPOENAED

Several East Liverpool Men Cited to Appear Before Common Pleas Court.

THE GRAND JURY'S WORK

The prediction made by the knowing ones, and the fear expressed by the saloon men themselves that the special grand jury would have to do with the liquor business and very little else, has been fully realized. Six East Liverpool saloonists have been summoned to appear before the court of common pleas at Lisbon to answer to charges of various kinds, all of which are more or less serious.

Since the new administration took hold of the affairs of this city, there have been many alleged violations. In a few instances the offenders were prosecuted under the city ordinances, but only where it was certain a conviction could be secured. Where it appeared there was any doubt that the charges could be substantiated, the matters were turned over to the prosecutor to be brought to the attention of the grand jury. A number of witnesses were before the latter body yesterday from this city, and while the majority were said to be men who were slated as habituals, there were a few minors among the number. There seemed to be a disposition on the part of the grand jury to look into the alleged violation of the Sunday liquor laws in East Liverpool, and that the effort was successful is known in at least one case. Michael Cloran and his son were indicted for Sunday selling, and will probably go with the others today.

Cal Bowers and his bartender, Tom Davis and wife, Jack Robinson and wife, Cornelius Smith, Ben Schar, John Johannes, all of this city, have been summoned to appear before the common pleas court at 1 o'clock today. Deputy W. C. Powell served the papers early this morning, and the parties left immediately for the county seat.

Johannes is, or was, the janitor of the Turner hall, and at the last municipal election, is alleged to have furnished liquor to some of the election officers. One of the voting precincts was located in the hall, and the officers on duty there were right in the building all day. It has been stated by members of the Turner society that if the janitor did furnish or sell intoxicants on that day he did so without authority from the society, and it is just possible that he may be left to fight the case on whatever charge the grand jury has found, in his own behalf without the aid of the society.

FEES OF AUDITORS ARE RESTRICTED

They Are Only Entitled to Four Per Cent on Taxes They Discover Unpaid.

Columbus, June 25.—(Special)—Attorney General Sheets has rendered an opinion to Prosecutor W. R. Alban, of Jefferson county, that the auditor of that county is not entitled to four per cent penalty for additions made to the tax duplicate by the board of equalization, nor is he entitled to that percentage for the listing of property omitted by mistake. He may only receive the four per cent fee when he by his own diligence discovers and places on the duplicate property which tax dodgers seek to escape payment on.

This opinion applies to all county auditors.

THE GRAND JURY DID QUICK WORK

In Two Days Investigated 42 Cases and Found 36 Indictments.

SOME OF CHARGES MADE

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—The special grand jury finished its work and made its report to the court yesterday afternoon, after having been in session less than two days. The report follows:

"This special grand jury was empaneled on Tuesday, June 23, at 10 o'clock a. m., and after instructions from the court, commenced the investigation of cases presented.

"We investigated 42 cases, examined 57 witnesses and found 36 indictments."

William Morron, foreman, signed the report.

Among the indictments returned were the following:

Edward Duncan, Washington township, horse stealing.

Daniel Davis, Salem, selling liquor to a habitual drunkard.

Robert Nace, Lisbon, larceny.

George Easton, Wellsville, four indictments for a crime against a sister and two indictments of a similar nature.

Michael and Thomas Cloran, and Charles Waggle, East Liverpool, for keeping place open and selling liquor on Sunday.

Frank Easton, Wellsville, four indictments for a crime against a daughter and two for a similar offense.

William Bowles, Middleton township, embezzlement of a watch valued at $2.

Health Officer Chosen.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—At a meeting of the Lisbon city council last night, David Eells was appointed health officer. The tax levy was fixed at 15 mills.

Contested Will Is Sustained

Decision of Judge Hole Makes Valid a Paper Disposing of $20,000.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—The contested will case from Columbiana in which William Hizey et al were the plaintiffs against Alice B. Nise et al was called yesterday afternoon, and was quickly concluded. Judge Hole instructed the jury to find for the defendant, sustaining the will.

In this case the plaintiffs, as interested grandchildren of the late Matthias Nolf, of Columbiana, brought suit to set aside the will on the ground that the testator was not of sound mind and undue influence was brought to bear on him. When the case was called none of the plaintiffs appeared and the defendants submitted the will, showing it to have been probated. The estate is valued at about $20,000.

KING PETER TAKES OATH OF THE OFFICE

Afterward Reviews the Troops And Belgrade Makes a Holiday.

Belgrade, June 25.—(Special)—King Peter took the oath of office today and reviewed the troops. It was a gala occasion.

Authorized to Adopt.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—Mary Massey, of East Liverpool, has been authorized to adopt as her children, Laura and Mary Massey, minor daughters of Fletcher Massey, who has given his written consent to the adoption.

Excitement reigned in the shanty boat districts last night when two policemen and three detectives in the employ of the C. & P. Railroad company scoured the beach and several of the boats in search of several hundred dollars worth of plunder that has been stolen during the past few weeks.

As reported exclusively in the News Review on Monday a box car on a siding near the passenger depot was entered the latter part of last week and at least 20 bottles of Overholt whisky stolen and carried away. Of late more stealing of this nature has been carried on than for several years. The railroad detectives have been notified on every occasion and though they have discovered a few clues they have never been able to track the guilty parties successfully.

Besides breaking into freight cars the thieves have been systematically stealing pieces of iron from the railroad, and one night not long since they succeeded in getting away with nearly 1,000 pounds of valuable iron castings and other material. Thefts of gas pipes and brass from numerous sections of the city have been reported, and in the West End at the property of the old flint mill company considerable metal has been seized. The police force and the railroad detectives have been diligently searching for the thieves, and by careful watching have now decided that the thefts have been committed by an organized band and that their haunts are along the beach.

Believing this to be true they started out last night to locate some of the missing plunder and searched the beach thoroughly. The detectives unceremoniously entered several of the boats in which they had determined the guilty parties lived, but they were unable to find any of the stolen property. When the residents of Shantytown saw the approach of the posse of officers they became very much excited and made a lively demonstration. Notwithstanding that the officers failed to locate any of the goods last night they are positive of being on the right trail and will continue their hunt until the daring gang of robbers have been either dispersed or taken into custody.

ROUGH TREATMENT FOR J. C. WALSH

The East Liverpool Democrat Was Pummeled a Good Deal By Party Brethren.

HARD TO KEEP ORDER

Energetic Work on the Part of Sergeants-at-Arms Finally Restored Peace After a Disgraceful, Rough and Tumble Fight.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—The attempt of J. C. Walsh, of East Liverpool, a defeated aspirant for the nomination for representative, to turn the Democratic county convention into a Punch and Judy show yesterday, was a deplorable and disgraceful affair, which is now regretted perhaps by no one more than Walsh himself.

When the vote on candidates was announced in which it was shown that Walsh had been defeated, he got the floor and began a tirade in which he wanted to know whether the gathering was a Democratic, Magwump, Republican or Prohibition convention.

He was interrupted by T. S. Arnold, of Leetonia, who raised the point that Walsh was not an accredited delegate and not entitled to a hearing.

Walsh was denied the privilege of the floor, but he continued to interrupt until W. H. Spence was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and succeeded in quieting Walsh. Later, owing to a further interruption from Walsh, the convention was compelled to suspend proceedings in confusion.

Chairman Aten called for assistant sergeants-at-arms to eject the disturber. Two pairs of strong arms finally laid hold of Walsh and started for the door with him, almost tearing away the probate bar rail.

In a moment the men were struggling on the floor and blows were struck that threatened to involve other members of the convention. Walsh was permitted to regain his feet and after a terrific struggle was forced out of the door and into the corridor, where the struggle continued until Hon. Al. Carlile, Sheriff Leonard and others succeeded in restoring quiet, and Walsh was led away bleeding slightly about the face and neck.

While the convention was regaining its equilibrium, a prominent East Liverpool delegate made remarks derogatory to Walsh and a few of his friends, saying they represented an element which had been a mill stone about the neck of the party in that city.

After the excitement had died down the convention rushed its business expeditiously, a full report of which was given in yesterday's News Review, in conclusion extending a vote of thanks to the sergeant-at-arms for preserving order.

After adjournment the county central committee organized by electing as chairman W. J. Foley, of East Palestine. Chairman Foley is empowered to select a secretary and treasurer. For the first time in 28 years Editor W. S. Potts, of the Patriot, was unable to attend the convention yesterday afternoon, being occupied with a case in court.

WATER SHUT OFF

From the Homes of Delinquent Patrons of This City Department.

The officials of the city water works have ordered the water to be shut off at the homes of the delinquent renters. Quite a number were served thus yesterday and a few today.

Clerk Gipper states that the number of delinquents is much less than usual and that he thinks all of them will be around and settle their bills before the end of the week.

AN ANGRY ITALIAN FOUGHT VICIOUSLY

Tried to Kill Officials of the Construction Company by Shooting Them.

TAKEN AFTER A STRUGGLE

The little hamlet of Industry was again the scene of a wild west production last evening. And as in the numerous exciting melees that have occurred there of late, the employees of Sims & Co., railroad contractors, were the principals. As the result of last night's affray an Italian boss by the name of Patrick Calsamo is in the Beaver jail and at least a score of his brethren are nursing badly bruised heads.

It was pay day for the employees yesterday, and because the paymaster of the construction company would not send Calsamo's stipend from this city to him at Industry he became terribly enraged, and early in the evening, when Supt. Bernard Patton, J. J. Dugan and Timekeeper R. S. Ovelman, who had gone from the local office on Second street, met him near his shanty in Industry, he was in a fit of madness and made a vicious assault on the gentlemen. He cried out that he wanted his money and that he would kill the men if they did not produce it. The trio were fearless and ordered him to seek other quarters.

Instead of complying with the command the angered son of Italy showed fight. He pulled from a hip pocket a big revolver and when not more than 10 yards from Superintendent Patton aimed it at him and fired twice in rapid succession. Luckily for Mr. Patton, the aim was erring and the bullets flew wide of their mark. The trio of officials began to realize the dangerous predicament they were in and commenced to make preparations for defense. Hardly had the pistol shots sounded until the spot was black with Italians, the number being estimated at about 100, and all were excitedly running to and fro, making wild gestures and threats.

After the performance had been on in full blast for possibly three minutes a score or more of the foreigners made a rush at the American gentlemen and the melee that followed was the picture of a riot scene. Finally the Italians were subdued, some of them receiving hard cracks on the head and not a few of them being felled.

Constable Finley Mason was attracted to the scene and was advised to arrest Calsamo. He was game and started in on the undertaking but met with considerable difficulty and had not other Americans assisted him he would have been solely at the mercy of the Italians. He succeeded at last in getting the man under control and accompanied by a half dozen Americans escorted him to the jail at Beaver.

Messrs. Patton, Dugan and Ovelman declare that it was the most exciting time of their lives and consider themselves very fortunate at escaping unharmed. A charge of shooting with intent to kill has been preferred against Calsamo.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING A LARGE CITY BUILDING WHERE FIRE STATION IS

The Advocates of the Scheme Say the Structure
Would Pay For Itself
In Time.

Since the proposition was offered and practically agreed upon to add improvements, the cost of which would aggregate nearly $3,000, to the city hall, the question of the propriety of such a move has been given considerable attention by several conservative business men and they have agreed that the improvements should not be made to the building; instead that a new building, commodious, substantial and up to date in every particular should be erected.

In conversation with one of these gentlemen this morning a reporter of the News Review gleaned the well based ideas of the new proposition and it is urged that the city council and the remaining officials of the city give them due consideration before taking definite action on the plan over which they have labored since it was proposed.

That the present city hall is a disgrace to the Crocker City everyone will agree. There is not a city in the state of the same size that is suffered to bear the harsh criticisms that falls to East Liverpool because of its miserable looking municipal building. The city has grown remarkably fast during the last few years and will continue to advance. Its residents deserve something better than the disgraceful structure situated at the corner of Third and Market streets. The officials of such a thriving city deserve better quarters. They should have them and it is claimed it will be the practice of economy to make the provision.

"Raise the central fire station," argues the financier. "Though it is in better condition than the city hall, it is nevertheless a disgrace to the city. Erect in its stead a brick and stone structure of five or six stories. The cost may come close to $50,000, but even if it does it will be the means of saving the city thousands of dollars of unnecessary expense and in the end the building will pay for itself. In the building provide for a jail, a clean, respectable one. Make a place for an up-to-date fire station. Both of these can be arranged on the first floor and they will be proudly taken care of by those appointed for that work."

DEMOCRATS PASS SOME RESOLUTIONS

Find Many Things Which They Profess to Deplore And to Be Alarmed At.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special)—In the Democratic county convention yesterday resolutions were passed declaring the necessity of self government; deploring the tendency to depart from a purely democratic government and to place political power in the hands of a plutocratic class as alarming; expressing fears that the foundation of the government is being undermined; alleging that organized wealth reaches into the public treasury and the people's funds are stolen, in high and low places, in sums both large and small; suggesting as a remedy for alleged evils that the masses be moved by honesty; that a wandering from American soil and an aping after royalty fill Americans with disgust and fear; quoting against entangling foreign alliances; danger in refusing to let the constitution follow the flag; the only safety to elect honest and economical men to office and require a strict accounting; mourning increasing tax burdens; demanding honesty and economy in county affairs; closing with an expression of pride in Sheriff Leonard and a eulogy for him.

News and Notes About The Potteries

DO NOT BELIEVE HIM DEAD.

Strange stories are said to be afloat in Tiffin over the death and funeral of the late Colonel Albert Brewer, ex-pottery manufacturer, who passed away suddenly at his home several weeks ago. These stories are to the effect that there are some people who do not believe that Brewer is dead. It is declared he was seen on the streets the night of the day preceding the one of his death, and some who attended the obsequies, which were quite exclusive, are reported as having said that the face in the casket was much unlike that of the man it purported to be. At the time of his death, it will be recalled, a charge of manslaughter was resting over Brewer's head. While there are some credulous enough to attach some importance to the rumors, friends of the family denounce the whole story as a cruel hoax. The remains were taken to Trenton, N. J., for interment, the birthplace of the deceased.

AGAINST LABOR DAY PARADE.

The question of whether or not there will be a parade in East Liverpool on Labor day has been brought before several of the Brotherhood locals since the last meeting of Trades Council, and as was expected the potterers are in favor of doing away with the feature. This feeling is not unanimous, however, and it is just possible that there will be enough locals outside the pottery industry to carry the question in favor of a parade. The unionists who favor having a parade as usual are enthusiastic in their support of the move, and will not give it up until it is proved beyond a doubt that the other side have the most votes.

NEW PLANT.

The Mannington plant of the Cameron pottery concern is nearing completion, and the machinery will be installed as soon as a Bucyrus machine company has completed the order. This is the second pottery of Benedum Bros. The Mannington plant is modeled after the fashion of the factor at Cameron. The present unsteady condition of the industry in general has not discouraged the West Virginia capitalists.

THE KEYSTONE BUSY.

The new double decorating kiln of the Keystone Pottery company, of New Brighton, Pa., is completed, and the bisque kiln will be finished by July 1. Manager Rigby says the plant has been a most pronounced success in every particular. Orders coming in this late in the season are keeping it busy.

TRYING TO GET TOGETHER.

Dippers' union No. 41, at its latest meeting, discussed the labor trouble at the Glasgow pottery of the John Moses & Sons company at Trenton. A committee was appointed to confer with the firm and endeavor to adjust the difficulty. The conference will take place in a day or two.

RESUME JULY 7.

Work in most all of the departments in the East End potteries will be brought to a close tonight until after July 4. The employees have all been notified to return to work on the seventh and eighth of July and all feel confident of a steady run of work after the resumption.

LYNCHERS UNKNOWN

Coroner's Jury Fails to Reveal Identity of Leaders of Mob.

CORWELL RELEASED ON BAIL

Will Be Given Further Hearing—Belief Prevails That No One Will Be Punished for Deed—Mystery Surrounds Shooting of Peter Smith.

Wilmington, Del., June 25.—Arthur Corwell, who claims his home is in Hartford City, Ind., and who was arrested on the charge of complicity in the burning to death of George White, the negro assailant and murderer of Helen Bishop, was released on $5,000 bail. He will be given a further hearing.

Popular feeling in the tragedy of Monday night has not yet entirely disappeared. About 2,000 persons gathered in front of the city hall, where Corwell was confined, and made a demonstration. Extra police were on duty within the police station, and all officials were on hand in case of trouble. The crowd committed no overt act, however, beyond making a great noise. There were loud cries for the release of Corwell, to which the police paid no attention.

The verdict of the coroner's inquest did not implicate Corwell and the authorities decided to release him on $5,000 bail. This was furnished by Thomas McHugh, a wholesale liquor dealer. Word of this action soon reached the crowd and a great cheer was sent up, after which the people quickly dispersed.

When the inquest began the remains of White could not be found, and after a long search they were found wrapped in paper on an ice chest. White weighed about 200 pounds, but only five pounds of flesh and bone were left of him after the lynchers had concluded their work. The jury brought in the following verdict:

"Resolved, That George White came to his death between the hours of 10 p. m. of June 22, 1903, and 4 a. m. of June 23, 1903, by being burned in a field adjoining the road leading from Price's corner to the Ferris industrial school, by a party or parties unknown to this jury."

What the next step of the authorities will be is not known. The coroner's inquest having failed to reveal the identity of the leaders in the lynching, it is thought that the authorities are unable to proceed. Corwell declares he is innocent and says he can prove that he was not at the lynching.

The belief is growing here that no one will ever be punished for the work of the mob. Certain prominent citizens, although they deplore the occurrence, stand ready to raise a fund for the defense of any one who should be prosecuted for the offense.

Peter Smith, the boy who was shot while the mob was in the workhouse on Monday night, died as a result of his injuries. The boy was an Italian; who shot him no one seems to know. The jail guards are positive that he was not wounded by one of their number, claiming that they fired over the heads of the crowd. The jail officials think he was shot by some one in the crowd.

The convention refused to adopt a minority report signed by four members of the committee on resolutions adding to the platform reported by the seven members constituting the majority of the committee a plank reaffirming the Democratic national platform of 1900, and rejected another minority report adding to the plank demanding government control of railway charges, a provision that in case such control should not prove effective the national government should acquire ownership of railroads.

Engineer Killed at Post of Duty.

Cherryvale, Kan., June 25.—A St. Louis and San Francisco fast express crashed into two loaded coal cars near here while running at full speed. The engine and two dead baggage cars were telescoped. Engineer John McKenn was killed. Fireman Feist, of Fort Scott, was seriously hurt, and several passengers were bruised. The coal cars had got away from a switching crew and were rushing to meet the oncoming passenger at a high speed when the passenger train rounded a bend. Before the speed of the passenger could be checked the collision came. Both men remained at their posts.

Extra Session of Kansas Legislature.

Topeka, Jan. 25.—The Kansas legislature convened in extra session to relieve the flood situation in the Kaw valley. Thirty-four flood bills were introduced in the house and nearly as many in the senate. A big fight was developed on the question of making an appropriation to relieve the flood sufferers, as well as to authorize the building of bridges. It was expected that Governor Bailey in his message would outline some plan of relief, but he did not, leaving that for the legislature to handle.

WE HEREBY CONDEMN, repudiate and openly challenge as false and malicious, all statements to the effect that SOZODONT, the well known dentifrice, is or ever was acid or contains any ingredient injurious to the teeth or mouth. The origin of these statements has been traced to certain irresponsible and unprincipled persons desiring to benefit thereby. We, therefore, publicly stand and stand ready to prove SOZODONT to be not only non-acid but an acid destroyer, for by its alkaline reaction it neutralizes all destructive mouth acids. East End Young Man Wedded And Will Go to India As a Missionary.

Rev. Hubert C. Chambers and Miss Ethel Frampton were married at high noon at the residence of the bride's parents at West Middlesex, Pa., yesterday. Rev. Ross Greene, of Sharon, Pa., formerly of the Second U. P. church of the East End, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Mr. Klatt and Rev. Mr. Betts, of Pittsburg. The bride and groom were attended by the four-year-old niece of the bride, little Catherine Frampton, as flower girl, and Master Hubert Chambers, who acted as page. The pretty ring ceremony was used.

The bride was gowned in an exquisite dress of white batiste with cream lace. Forty invited guests were present, among them Mrs. M. E. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers and Richard Chambers, of the East End. The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many valuable and beautiful presents.

The bride is an esteemed lady and a graduate of Westminster college. Mr. and Mrs. Chambers will leave about the middle of September for India, in which country Mr. Chambers will take up active missionary work.

Promising Oil Prospects.

Alex. P. Myler returned from Toronto this morning and reports the coming of a well on the Myers farm as a small oil producer. The Myers farm is in the Knoxfield field and adjoining the leases of the Rock Run Oil & Gas company, of the East End. The members of the company are highly pleased with the drilling done, which shows that they are in the possession of territory with oil all around it.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative syrups, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. WEIGH YOURSELF BEFORE USING

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Mi-o-na, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation, since first introduced in East Liverpool and the remarkable results following its use, have made Will Reed such an enthusiastic believer in the great value of Mi-o-na, that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Mi-o-na will not make thin people fat, cure indigestion and restore health.

This is a strong guarantee, but Druggist Will Reed has seen so many of his customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons, become plump and well, solely through the use of Mi-o-na that he feels he cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good, rich blood, tones up the weakened digestive organs, helps the food to digest, and makes permanent cures in the worst cases of indigestion.

Three new cases of smallpox have developed at Hammondsville, Mrs. Joseph Nightingale, of Queen City, and two sons of William Robertson, of Brooklyn, adjoining Hammondsville, are suffering with the disease.

One of the pretty June weddings in Toronto was that of Miss Frances Dale Sloan to William Henry Robb. The groom is a son of James S. Robb, of Toronto, and is employed in the office of the Ohio Valley Sewer Pipe company.

ANNIHILATION OF DISTANCE.

How much nearer to each other the nations of the world seem to be today and really are today than was the case a few decades ago. When weeks and months were required for communications between the United States and Europe the countries of the old world appeared to be a long way off. Now the circumstances of old earth is belted with telegraph and cable lines in every possible direction. What happens today in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, South America and the great islands of the sea is made known to us tomorrow by great newspapers like the Chicago Record-Herald, whose foreign correspondents are located in every important city in the world outside of the United States. In addition to its own staff correspondents the Record-Herald enjoys the foreign news service of the New York Herald, famous for many years for the reliability of its foreign news, and also of that great co-operative news gathering organization, the Associated Press. No other daily newspaper in America possesses facilities so varied and extensive for covering the news of all nations.

SERVIANS WELCOME KING PETER I

Entry into Belgrade Marked by Enthusiasm in Which All Parties Participated.

Belgrade, June 25.—The entry of King Peter I into Belgrade was distinguished by a diplomatic boycott, yet his reception by the people was everywhere marked by heartiness which approached genuine enthusiasm in which all classes participated.

The king's arrival has awakened the people out of the attitude of indifference which they had assumed since the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga. From the moment King Peter left the train and the band welcomed him with playing the Serbian national anthem, his progress was followed by prolonged cheers and exultant shouts of "Long live Peter the First" wherever he appeared.

The royal flag was hoisted over the new palace on the entry of the king into that building and the guards on duty at the old palace marched over and went on duty at the new palace. All the late King Alexander's domestics have been installed in similar capacities in King Peter's household.

SIR THOMAS ARRIVES

Hearty Welcome Accorded Distinguished Visitor by State and Nation.

RETURN OF J. PIERPONT MORGAN

Scenes Accompanying Their Landing

Rather Out of the Ordinary—Lipton Exhibits Rabbit's Foot and Is Sanguine of Success.

New York, June 25.—The Oceanic brought Sir Thomas Lipton and J. P. Morgan, and the scenes accompanying their arrival both in the bay and at the dock were rather out of the ordinary. Sir Thomas was welcomed officially by state and nation.

As the Oceanic was towed in there came as escort the Privateer, with the Erin and the Corsair, Mr. Morgan's yacht. On the Privateer was a committee representing the city, state and nation, which included General Chaffee and Adjutant General Corbin.

Sir Thomas, once ashore, exhibiting his rabbit's foot, said he felt sure success awaited the Shamrock III. His reception was most flattering.

"Will you match Shamrock I against Columbia?" was asked.

"I will do anything for the good of the sport. I would rather not commit myself to any arrangements before the races. After the race I will be ready for anything."

"Will you try again if you do not lift the cup this time?"

"Don't try to dishearten me before the race. I almost think it will be my duty to try again. I don't think that I will have to try again, though, for I have the best boat and the best skipper that Britain can produce. If Reliance wins it will be because she is the best boat ever built to defend the cup."

"After I return from Washington I shall spend my time on the Erin. I am going to try and have a look at the Newport races next week. During the cup races Will Fife, who designed Shamrock III and who was on board the Oceanic with me, will be on the cup yacht to assist Captain Wringe sailing her. Fife is the best yachtsman in England. I, too, will be on board Shamrock during the races, as I have never missed a sail on her yet. I can only say again that I am confident of victory."

Mr. Morgan as usual had great trouble in dodging cameras. Again as usual he did not talk further than to say that there will be no reorganization of the International Mercantile Marine company.

Forming a party with Mr. Morgan on the Oceanic were Bruce Ismay, chairman of the White Star line; Henry Wilding, European manager of the International Mercantile Marine company, and Sir Clinton Dawkins, who is vice president of the same company as well as the European partner of Mr. Morgan.

After landing Mr. Morgan held a conference with C. A. Griscom and G. W. Perkins, after which he boarded the Corsair, going directly to his home at Highland Falls.

Sir Thomas Lipton was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria by two score of his friends. Major General Henry C. Corbin presided. Among those present were Assistant United States Treasurer Hamilton Fish, Collector Stranahan, Senator Fairbanks, Charles M. Schwab, General Chaffee, William Fife, John H. Flagler, Warner Miller and Ferdinand W. Peck, of Chicago.

SITUATION IN THE PHILIPPINES

People Taking Kindly to American Methods and Government—Public School System.

Washington, June 25.—Judge E. Finley Johnson, one of the justices of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands, discussed with the president the situation in the islands. Judge Smith recently was elevated from the circuit to the supreme bench.

"During the two years I was on the circuit bench," said he, "I tried 1,500 cases. The Philippine people, despite occasional outbreaks, are taking kindly to American methods and to American government. I think it is a safe assertion that three-fourths of the people would not accept any other form of government, even if they had the chance. The greatest monument to American government in the Philippines is the public school system. When the United States took possession of Philippine affairs in 1898 there was not a single common school in the islands outside of Manila. Today there is not a city or town of any size in the islands without its common school and many pupils. The beneficent results of this system can be appreciated very readily."

Killed by Baseball.

Washington, June 25.—Robert L. Shannon, aged 22 years, was struck by a baseball on the Georgetown university athletic grounds and died within 30 seconds. The ball was thrown from the infield by G. W. Iddings and struck Shannon at the juncture of the brain and the spinal column. Iddings was prostrated when he learned what happened and was removed to the hospital, where his condition is serious.

The calamity howling habit is strong when once it gets fastened on a party or an individual. The county Democracy at Lisbon was "seeing things" yesterday and "viewing them with alarm." Everybody will admit that there are some conditions existing that might be bettered, but no sane man will look to the Democratic party to work a change for the better. The experiment has been tried, both in Ohio and in the nation, with results that were well-nigh calamitous.

Morgan has returned home and neither the money market nor the shore tipped when he landed.

The gas company complains that council took snap judgment on it.

What sort of judgment did the trust take when it promulgated its edict, raising prices without asking the consent or wishes of anybody interested?

Kansas farmers want 50,000 men to help in their harvesting. They gathered in about $215,000,000 worth of crops last year and hope to do better this season. No wonder Populism is a lost trade out there.

It may be some consolation to the weather grumblers to learn that Europe has had quite as wet and disagreeable weather as America has experienced.

The Iowa Democrats refused to endorse the Chicago platform. Iowa Democrats don't cut much ice, but they know what hurt the rest of their brethren.

Such scenes as were enacted at the Democratic convention at Lisbon are calculated to further deepen public disgust with the Democratic party.

East Liverpool Democracy may not be large or influential, but when it comes to furnishing excitement at a convention it gets there with both feet.

Maybe the gas trust wants to restore old King Coal to his throne.

Honestly, Mr. Walsh, it wasn't worth fighting for.

ASSESSING BOARD'S WORK

Rapid Progress Made in Straightening Out the Pennsylvania Avenue Puzzle.

The Pennsylvania avenue assessing board is progressing rapidly with the work and does not anticipate serious trouble in the execution of the duties imposed upon it. The members state that there will be some difference in their report, as compared with the report of the former board, but that it will not be great. They have assessed some of the property higher than the rate imposed by the former board and some of it lower.

The calamity howling habit is strong when once it gets fastened on a party or an individual. The county Democracy at Lisbon was "seeing things" yesterday and "viewing them with alarm." Everybody will admit that there are some conditions existing that might be bettered, but no sane man will look to the Democratic party to work a change for the better. The experiment has been tried, both in Ohio and in the nation, with results that were well-nigh calamitous.

PROPOSAL FOR ERECTING

A LARGE CITY BUILDING

"On the second floor arrange quarters for the mayor, city auditor, city treasurer, city engineer and the city solicitor. It can be done and they will have spacious rooms. Provide on the third floor a council chamber, a room for the water works, the board of public service, the board of public safety, the board of health and one for any board or body of men called upon to do special work for the city. The stories above can be arranged for business offices and a mass convention hall can be fitted up. The offices will undoubtedly be in demand and will rent for a good price. A vault can be added to the building for the protection of valuable documents, books, etc.

"In consideration of the fact that the officials now occupying the city hall are hampered by closeness until it is almost impossible for them to transact business and that, poor as it is, money is being expended upon it continually it would be a saving to erect a new building, if for no other reason. The office occupied by the water works is paid for at a big rent. The money expended for this office could be thrown into the new improvement and would assist in eliminating the material. Rent collected from the offices provided in the new building would be no small figure and beyond a doubt it would more than pay the interest on the money expended for the erection of the building. In the end enough money would be realized to wipe out the entire amount expended.

"A new building on the site, which fronts both on East Market and Broadway, would be centrally located and would be a most desirable location for both office purposes and for the transaction of public business.

"It will not be necessary to abandon the present city hall. It can be repaired and converted into a school-house. It would make an elegant four room building for that purpose and could be so arranged without much expense. And more school accommodation will soon be a necessity."

COUNCIL MUST DECIDE

UPON IMPROVEMENTS

Important Opinion of the City Solicitor on City Hall Renovation.

City Solicitor George E. Davidson has reached a decision on the question as to who has the right to have the city building improved. He has the decision in writing and will present it to council at its next regular meeting. After a thorough investigation of the provisions of the code on the subject he has decided that the board of public service is not empowered to order an improvement made. It is authorized to repair any defect, providing the cost will not exceed $500, without presenting the question to council, but when an improvement is to be made council must decide upon it. However, after this is done the service board can superintend the work. The solicitor's decision was asked for by council, and is a most important one.

A VOYAGE OF LOVE.

A Story of Fact That Reads Like Romance.

A VERY BRAVE OLD PIONEER.

How a Voyage to New Orleans by the Hero Helped a Worthy Minister and Relieved an Entire Community.

Out of the dust-covered annals of old frontier devotion the writer has gathered the incidents of this story. It is a tale of simple self-offering, one of the kind to be put in a choice scrapbook and read when one's affairs go awry and discouragement is creeping in.

In 1780 the Rev. Joseph Smith was settled over the Presbyterian congregations at Cross Creek and Upper Buffalo, in Washington county, Pennsylvania. He was a man of great learning and piety, and won a position in the hearts of the hardy frontiersmen such as few men are ever able to conquer. The Wetzel, Bradys and Poes, and others as famous in border annals, were among his hearers, and the Poe brothers were among those who signed the call sent to him and were his regular supporters. As the promised salary was not large the good minister had to buy a farm on credit, support himself by its produce, and promise to pay for it with the salary which he was to receive. Under such stern conditions did his labors begin.

Mr. Smith was a minister fitted to the place in which he found himself, and in a few years he was the best loved man in that portion of the border. But love could not meet financial demands, and finally he found himself in a critical situation. Indian wars and other evils had so disorganized frontier society that the people were three years in arrears with his salary, and he was served with notice to give up his farm or pay for it by a certain time. This became known to his people, who realized that if their minister lost his farm they would have to lose him. A meeting was held at which the evil condition was fully discussed. Many plans for relief were suggested, but none could be carried out. The people had no money, and could not put their plans into execution. In despair the gathering dispersed, with the agreement that another meeting would be held in a week.

There was a miller in that part of Washington county whose name was Moore. He promised that he would grind free of cost all wheat which the settlers would give to relieve the situation. This became known and the grain began to pour in. About a month later the flour was ready for market. Then a really serious problem presented itself. The nearest profitable market was New Orleans, then farther away in difficulty of access than any Chinese city is today. The people assembled and took up the question: Who would take the flour to market? This meant a tedious journey in a flatboat through the hostile Indian country to the Spanish possessions at the mouth of the Mississippi. It would now be hard to find any place in the world a journey so taxing and so dangerous as the one proposed. After long discussion the people sadly realized that the whole project must fail at this point for lack of a man, when one William Smiley, a revered elder in the Upper Buffalo church, well up toward 70 years of age, arose and declared that to serve the church and retain their minister among them he would undertake the perilous journey.

The people were astonished, but accepted the self-sacrificing offer. By promises of liberal payment two young men were persuaded to go with the old man. On the appointed day nearly the entire congregation, led by the minister, walked through the forest 15 miles to the Ohio. On the shore a prayer was made, a hymn was sung, and then the old elder cried: "Unto the cable and let us see what the Lord will do for us!" The boat with its precious cargo floated slowly out of sight, and the people returned homeward, wondering what the outcome would be. Slowly the time passed, with of course no word of good or evil from the church's messenger. At last, when from out the silent western forests no tidings had come for more than nine months, the settlers began to feel sure that Elder Smiley had been lost.

One Sunday morning soon after they found the brave old man in his accustomed place at worship, and a meeting was appointed for the hearing of his report. There he told them how he had made the journey in safety and had sold the flour at New Orleans for $27 a barrel. Then he poured out before them such a heap of good gold coins as had never before been seen among so frugal a people. The minister's four years' arrearage was paid up and one year's salary was advanced to him. Elder Smiley was paid $300 and the two young men each received $100. There yet remained a goodly balance. This was divided fairly among the men whose gifts of wheat had made this remarkable enterprise possible. Thus by the kindness of all and the noble spirit of one the threatened loss of pastoral care and the consequent destruction of their religious privileges was averted. The gulf of their darkest period was thus bridged, and the more prosperous years which followed enabled the hardy pioneers to enjoy the fruitage of their greater toil and sacrifice. This story reads like a chapter out of a volume of romantic fiction, but it is all the solid kind of fact.

WELLSVILLE

ON THE FOURTH

Wellsville Prepared to Celebrate in the Lively, Old Fashioned Way.

A largely attended and enthusiastic Fourth of July meeting was held last night in the council chamber, Mayor Fogo presiding. Final arrangements were made for a monster demonstration here on the Fourth, committees on fire works, ordinance and parades having been appointed.

Red, white and blue suits have been provided for 200 boys, who will march in the parade, carrying flags.

Maple's band, of East Liverpool, has been engaged to furnish the music, and it is expected that the East Liverpool Sons of Veterans will be here, 50 strong, including some of the department officials.

Sherman Quail, A. S. Rogers, E. S. Martin, Morris Murchland and Stephen Large were appointed the committee on sports and an attractive program is being prepared.

The uniform rank of the Colored Knights of Pythias of Steubenville will take part, with the colored K. of P. band of East Liverpool. Rev. L. A. Upshaw will give dinner and supper in the hose and hook and ladder room of the city building on that day, and elaborate preparations will be made to take care of a vast multitude of visitors.

The secret societies have signified their willingness to take part in the exercises. The fire works will be given from a barge in the middle of the river. H. H. Whitacre and A. S. Rogers are the committee in charge.

The meeting was one of the most notable ever held here, and everything points to a screaming time on the glorious Fourth.

TAXES TO BE LOWER
AND PEOPLE REJOICE

Wellsville Now in Shape to Buy Its Own Bonds for the First Time.

The tax commissioners met yesterday afternoon and ratified the tax levy ordinance submitted to council by Mayor Fogo and passed by that body, with the exception of the item of the 10 mills asked by the commission itself to apply to the bonded indebtedness and interest thereon. This was reduced to 5.9 mills. With that modification the ordinance will be referred to council for final action tomorrow night.

The tax commissioners merged the various funds of the city—15 in all—into a sinking fund, and when this was done it was found that the city had to its credit, and immediately available, the snug sum of $25,656.57. Of this amount $4,600 was at once invested in the bonds issued to pave Maple alley, and thus for the first time in its history did the city become the purchaser of its own bonds.

City Auditor McGregor was instructed to submit a list of all outstanding bonds with a view of the tax commissioners purchasing them as rapidly as possible.

Wellsville was never in better condition from a taxation standpoint than at present, and there is an especially good feeling among the officials. Taxes will be considerably lower than for many years previous.

SEIZED BY A RUFFIAN

Woman Fainted After Being Attacked By a Man on the Street.

The West End is being terrorized by a Jack the Grabber, and women are afraid to venture out unattended after dark. While two prominent young ladies were passing the Second Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, a burly brute sprang from the shadows of the building and caught one of the young women by the arm and attempted to drag her from the sidewalk. She screamed, as did her companion, and the culprit only released his hold after hearing the approaching footsteps of rescuers.

The young woman fainted and during the excitement incident to her restoration, the grabber made good his escape.

It has long been a notorious fact that the West End is not afforded the police protection its area demands and the residents of that section will take up the matter with council.

While returning to her home from a shopping expedition yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Nelson Kelly was attacked by an unknown man and an attempt was made to rob her. Mrs. Kelly was badly frightened when the man made a grab for her pocketbook, but succeeded in beating him off with an umbrella she carried.

The matter was reported to the police, and a lookout is being maintained for the would-be thief. The attempted holdup occurred on the hill above Steubenville street, and the place is being closely watched.

HUGE STONE FELL

Striking a Timber And Giving Workman a Terrible Blow.

James Cotton, employed on the C. & P. improvements being made near the city, met with an accident this morning which will lay him up indefinitely. Large stones were being handled by means of a derrick. One of these became unmanageable and falling upon a huge timber, hurled it high in the air. One end of the log struck Cotton on top of the head, rendering him unconscious and inflicting a severe scalp wound.

Dr. Hutchison was summoned and dressed the wound, after which the injured man was removed to his home.

SOCIAL EVENTS

YOUNG-SPONCELER

A Prominent Beaver Falls Couple Wedded—Many Guests From This City.

One of the most prominent social functions which has occurred in Beaver Falls for some time was the marriage yesterday of Miss Fern Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Young, and Mr. Frank J. Sponceler, both social leaders in Beaver Falls society. The wedding consisted of an impressive and beautiful ceremony and took place at the home of the bride's parents on Ninth avenue, which was decorated in artistic manner with tropical plants, sweet peas and carnations.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Wolfe, pastor of the First M. E. church of Beaver. The only attendants in the bridal party were the maid of honor and best man. The bride wore a handsome gown of cream voile over taffeta silk, en traine, trimmed with applique medallions and presented a charming appearance.

Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The bride's table was arranged in a very pretty manner, white satin ribbons being draped from a central point in the ceiling above to the corners of the table, where they were caught in bunches of smilax and bows of the ribbon.

About 60 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sponceler will take an extended wedding trip to Cleveland and from thence will spend some time on the lakes.

Among those who attended from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins, Mr. Larkins being a cousin of the bride, William Larkins, Mrs. Lizzie Larkins, Frank Fowler, Mrs. Emma Meeks, Mrs. John T. Fowler and George F. Fowler.

Mrs. Sponceler is well known in this city, where she made many friends while visiting several summers with Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Larkins.

ANNUAL DANCE
Hollenden Club Ball Friday Evening Promises to Be a Very Fine Affair.

The first annual dance of the Hollenden club promises to be one of the leading society functions of the season. The affair will be held at Rock Springs next Friday evening, and a large number of invitations have been issued. This being the first effort of the comparatively new social society special pains are being taken to make the dance one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have been invited.

The officers of the club will see to it that the large crowds are well taken care of, and arrangements have been made to furnish entertainment throughout the entire evening. There will not be a dull moment in the program, the main feature of which will be the music. The pavilion will be appropriately decorated with club colors and flowers. A large number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Pleasantly Entertained.
Miss Saling, of Pittsburgh, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cassidy, Avondale street, last evening was the guest of honor at a delightful entertainment, at which a large number of friends were present.

The Duke of Wellington wanted a certain piece of work done and instructed an officer of the Royal engineers to do it. After examination the officer informed the duke that it was impossible.

The duke sent for another officer, a much younger man and attached to another division of the army. This officer did what the duke required.

The next morning there appeared in the "orders of the day" the following epigrammatic note: "He who in war fails to do what he undertakes may always plead accident, which invariably attends military affairs; but he who declares a thing to be impossible which is subsequently accomplished registers his own incapacity."

Most Expensive Tree in the World.
Probably the most expensive tree in the world is in the City of London, on the corner of Cheapside and Wood street, about midway between the Bank of England and St. Paul's. It is an enormous oak, and is said to be 100 years old. It is protected by a clause in the deed of the property which forbids destruction of tree or branches. Architects were compelled to plan a rather peculiar building to avoid the branches. There it stands in the corner of one of the busiest streets in London, occupying ground of enormous value—and positively the only tree in the City of London outside of the parks.

ANNUAL DANCE
Hollenden Club Ball Friday Evening Promises to Be a Very Fine Affair.

The first annual dance of the Hollenden club promises to be one of the leading society functions of the season. The affair will be held at Rock Springs next Friday evening, and a large number of invitations have been issued. This being the first effort of the comparatively new social society special pains are being taken to make the dance one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to have been invited.

The officers of the club will see to it that the large crowds are well taken care of, and arrangements have been made to furnish entertainment throughout the entire evening. There will not be a dull moment in the program, the main feature of which will be the music. The pavilion will be appropriately decorated with club colors and flowers. A large number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Pleasantly Entertained.
Miss Saling, of Pittsburgh, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Cassidy, Avondale street, last evening was the guest of honor at a delightful entertainment, at which a large number of friends were present.

The Duke of Wellington wanted a certain piece of work done and instructed an officer of the Royal engineers to do it. After examination the officer informed the duke that it was impossible.

The duke sent for another officer, a much younger man and attached to another division of the army. This officer did what the duke required.

The next morning there appeared in the "orders of the day" the following epigrammatic note: "He who in war fails to do what he undertakes may always plead accident, which invariably attends military affairs; but he who declares a thing to be impossible which is subsequently accomplished registers his own incapacity."

Most Expensive Tree in the World.
Probably the most expensive tree in the world is in the City of London, on the corner of Cheapside and Wood street, about midway between the Bank of England and St. Paul's. It is an enormous oak, and is said to be 100 years old. It is protected by a clause in the deed of the property which forbids destruction of tree or branches. Architects were compelled to plan a rather peculiar building to avoid the branches. There it stands in the corner of one of the busiest streets in London, occupying ground of enormous value—and positively the only tree in the City of London outside of the parks.

Propagation of Silk Worms.

Washington, June 25.—The government's experiments with the propagation of the silk worm had proceeded so satisfactorily that within a few days the department will begin the actual reeling of silk. With a view of increasing the interest in this industry the department has encouraged in every way possible the growing of white mulberry trees, which, investigation has shown, develop worms which make beautiful cocoons. The experiments with the orange orange were unsatisfactory.

EMPEROR WELCOMED

Plenty of Powder Burned Firing Salutes in Honor of His Majesty.

AMERICAN OFFICERS RECEIVED

Unprecedented Courtesy Paid United States Navy—Crews of American Vessels Hospitably Entertained on Shore by German Sailors.

Kiel, Prussia, June 25.—Emperor William arrived on board the Hohenzollern. When the imperial yacht was sighted steaming into Kiel harbor she had the stars and stripes flying from the aftermast, and as she sailed by Rear Admiral Cotton's flagship, the Kearsarge, the imperial colors floating at the stern were dipped three times. This courtesy being without precedent in the German navy caused Rear Admiral Cotton, at audience he had later with the emperor, to thank his majesty in the name of the president of the United States for the honor shown to the American navy.

The emperor's entrance into the harbor was the occasion for a tremendous cannonade, each of the 32 warships firing 33 guns, the Americans observing the German regulation for honoring the sovereign. As the smoke from the thousand guns blew aside the Hohenzollern entered the lane of warships, at the upper end of which were the American vessels. The emperor stood alone on the upper bridge. The crews manning the cross trees, turrets and sides of the American ships gave his majesty three cheers as the yacht passed, which he acknowledged by saluting continuously, as the imperial colors were flown from the aftermast of each American warship. Aboard the Kearsarge was a party of Americans, including Ambassador Tower, R. R. Ritt, secretary of the Berlin embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mrs. Potts, wife of the United States naval attaché.

Earlier in the day Rear Admiral Cotton had received a telegram from the emperor saying his majesty would be pleased to receive him and the other American commanders as soon as possible after his arrival. Consequently the rear admiral assembled the captains on his flagship and just as the Hohenzollern was attached to her mooring buoy Rear Admiral Cotton's barge reached the yacht's gangway. Captain Usedom met Rear Admiral Cotton, Captains Walker, Cornwall and McCrea, Lieutenant Hussey, of the admiral's staff, and Naval Attaché Potts at the head of the gangway and presented them to Emperor William, who was standing two or three steps away, with his suite grouped behind him. His majesty shook hands and conversed for a minute with each of the American officers, saying how glad he was to see them in German waters. Turning to Rear Admiral Cotton, the emperor said: "You were in the monitor at Hampton Roads, were you not?"

"Not in the monitor, sir," replied the admiral, "but in another ship which stuck in a sand bank."

His majesty alluded to other incidents in Admiral Cotton's career and said he wished to visit the Kearsarge and would be pleased to take lunch aboard her. Rear Admiral Cotton and his captains then retired.

The emperor's arrival was an hour later than expected, and his majesty, therefore, did not visit the Kearsarge. Leave was given to 350 men from the American crews to go on shore. They were taken in charge individually and in groups by the German sailors, who treated them in the most hospitable manner.

PEONAGE PREVAILS IN GEORGIA

Negro in Debt Is Caught, Whipped and Put to Work—Case Tried at Macon.

Macon, Ga., June 25.—In United States court Judge Emory Speer imposed a fine of $1,000 each on three young men, William Shy, Arthur Clawson and Robert Turner, for holding a negro in involuntary servitude. He suspended the fine under conditions, and in so doing said:

"In view of the fact that it is the first crime of the kind which ever has occurred in Georgia and because of the frank confession of the young men, sentence is imposed in order to convince the public that the purpose of the court is to warn and deter others from like crime. During good behavior fine is suspended upon payment of $100 by each."

The offense was that the young men, who are prominent farmers, caught a negro who was in debt to them, gave him a whipping and made him go to work for them.

Judge Speer said that the problem of the times could not be solved by harsh measures and wanted it distinctly understood that the laws of Georgia were against such treatment.

Demurrers were filed in all the cases, which were overruled, and Pace then pleaded guilty in all the cases and appealed to the circuit court of appeals at New Orleans, giving bond in the sum of $5,000. The sentence of the court was five years' imprisonment in each case, to be served concurrently.

STRIKE LEADS TO BLOODSHED

Guards Fire Into Crowd of Sympathizers, Wounding Six Men, Two Seriously.

Richmond, Va., June 25.—Six men were wounded, two of them seriously, by street railway company guards, who fired into a crowd of strike sympathizers just outside the city limits. A car guarded by employees of the company, armed with shotguns, was standing at that point. There had been a big crowd there all the evening. The company claims that the guards were fired on first. At any rate, they fired into the crowd and a brisk fusillade followed.

While this was taking place in the West Side exciting scenes were enacted in the East End, where efforts were made to operate cars under the protection of the militia. All sorts of missiles were hurled at the cars and obstructions placed on the track. Finally the cars under the pilotage of a detachment of the Richmond Howitzers, with a galling gun, were taken to the barns.

Five companies of the Seventy-first regiment, from Norfolk and Newport News, are on the way to this city to reinforce the troops already here. The mayor has issued an address asking women and children to keep off the streets.

Three militiamen were wounded by the accidental discharge of a rifle. One of them was taken to a hospital, but is not dangerously injured.

MRS. M'KINLEY'S NIECE MARRIED

Miss Ida Barber Becomes Wife of Luther Day at Canton—Wealth of Wedding Presents.

Canton, O., June 25.—At 7 o'clock Wednesday evening Miss Ida Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barber and niece of Mrs. McKinley, became the wife of Luther, second son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. William R. Day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of several hundred guests.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Barber, and the groom by his brother, Stephen. For the wedding dinner the bride's table was set in the dining room and was surrounded by the members of the Day and Barber families.

When the first niece of the McKinleys was married the late president said that all should have the same bridal presents when their turns came, and ordered for Mabel McKinley, now Mrs. Dr. Baer, a massive silver service. That was duplicated by Mrs. McKinley for Mrs. Mary Barber last fall and again for the present bride. There was a wealth of other presents, including a set of china and gold coffee cups from Senator and Mrs. Hanna.

Agent Sewed Money in Coat Lining. St. Louis, June 25.—It was brought out through statements made to Circuit Attorney Folk by witnesses called to testify before the grand jury in connection with the St. Louis street car consolidation deal in the legislature that the legislative agent of the street car companies took $150,000, and turned it in the lining of his coat, sewed it over to two agents at Jefferson City for the alleged purpose of buying votes. This was during the legislative session of 1899. The names of the agent and the individuals in this deal are known to the circuit attorney, but are withheld for the present.

THE PRESS AROUSED

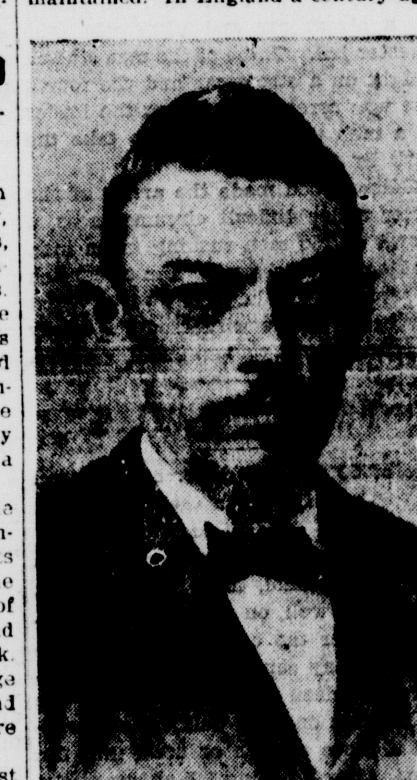

WHY THE PENNSYLVANIA EDITORS ARE INDIGNANT.

Keystone State's New Libel Law Called a "Press Muzzler"—How Newspapers May Be Affected—Governor Pennypacker.

Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker, who has aroused the universal indignation of the press of the Keystone State by signing the stringent libel law recently passed by the legislature, has been criticised unparalytically by the editors for his attempt at "press muzzling," as they term the new law.

The law provides that civil actions may be brought to recover damages resulting from negligence on the part of the owner, proprietor or managing editor of a newspaper in the ascertainment of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens. It is further provided that "if it shall be shown that the publication complained of resulted from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, manager or editor in the ascertainment of the facts or in the publication thereof compensatory damages may be recovered for injuries to business and reputation resulting from such publication as well as damages for the physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties, and whenever in any such action it shall be shown that the matter complained of is libelous and that such libelous matter has been given special prominence by the use of pictures, cartoons, headlines, displayed type or any other matter calculated to specially attract attention the jury shall have the right to award punitive damages against the defendant or defendants."

In the statement issued by Governor Pennypacker approving the law and giving his reasons for signing it he cited the publication of a cartoon in a recent issue of a Philadelphia newspaper. "The cartoon," the governor said, "put into words that the press asserts to the world that it is above the law and greater in strength than the government. No self-respecting people will permit such an attitude to be long maintained. In England a century ago the offender would have been drawn and quartered and his head stuck on a pole without the gates. In America this is the kind of arrogance that 'goes before a fall.'

The newspapers have announced their determination to continue on exactly the same lines hitherto followed, ignoring the existence of the new law. It is the intention of the papers to force a test case at once and carry the constitutionality of the act to the supreme court.

Governor Pennypacker is a man of peculiar characteristics. Much of his spare time has been given to the study of the history of Pennsylvania, but it is a mistake to assume that his laborious researches into colonial or Revolutionary history have prevented him

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired. Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That this condition goes on uncorrected for is almost criminal, when the well-known, time-tried and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. M. C. Murchland, of Commerce street, Wellsville, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in my case proved themselves an excellent nerve and general tonic. I was run down, nervous and not sleeping well. The medicine, however, gave me bodily strength, nerve steadiness and restful sleep, consequently I feel I can't recommend it too highly to others who suffer in a like manner."

THE SENTIMENT OF JEALOUSY

By P. MANTEGAZZA, Italian Anthropologist

WHY, when love is offended, should we invent a new sentiment, jealousy? ALL SENTIMENTS, WHEN THEY ARE SATISFIED, BRING US CLOSER TO THE ONE WHO HAS GIVEN THEM SATISFACTION, lead us to lavish caresses on him, to do good to him. Every wounded sentiment, on the contrary, leads us to return the offense, to do ill to him who caused the offense.

If by jealousy we mean the pain suffered when we feel that we are not loved, or have been deceived, EVERY HEART THAT LOVES OUGHT TO BE JEALOUS, just as whoever loves country and mother cannot see them offended without suffering pain. But if we take it to mean that tyrannical suspicion which leads us to torment the person who possesses us I would say, on the contrary, THAT WE NOT ONLY CAN LOVE, BUT CAN LOVE BETTER, WITHOUT BEING JEALOUS, and that we cannot love and experience jealousy.

THE DEATHBLOW TO THE OPEN DOOR IN CHINA

By Professor DEMETRIUS C. BOULGER of London

RUSSIA'S continued occupation of Manchuria will go on undisturbed. IF SHE EVACUATES ONE PLACE IT WILL BE ONLY TO GO TO ANOTHER A FEW MILES OFF. Her officials will be as supreme there as on Russian soil. No one else will have any rights. That innocent institution, the Russo-Chinese bank, will receive the dues of the customs and account for them to the Russian government or resident.

What will be the moral of this? It is one that the most timid of ministers need not fear to apply to the general position in China. Russia's retention of Manchuria signifies A DEATHBLOW TO THE POLICY OF "THE OPEN DOOR."

The loss of that important and valuable province carries with it so serious a breach of the integrity of China that it becomes forthwith a mere illusion.

CHINA MINUS MANCHURIA AND MONGOLIA IS NO LONGER THE SAME STATE THAT EXISTED BEFORE THE BOXER MOVEMENT.

From taking an active interest in current affairs.

His energy and capacity for work are remarkable. He exhibits in his heavy frame and great muscular development some of the characteristics of his Dutch ancestry. He was born in Philadelphia and even as a boy turned his attention to the colonial history of his state. Additional zest was given to his researches by the fact that his own people were active in the civil and military events that built up the great state of which he is now governor.

Fourteen years ago he was appointed by Governor Beaver to be judge of the court of common pleas and was subsequently elected to that office for a term of ten years and re-elected for another term.

Governor Pennypacker has a wife and four children. His son was graduated a year or so ago from the University of Pennsylvania. The governor was himself graduated from this institution in 1836.

By his act in putting the new libel law of Pennsylvania into effect Governor Pennypacker has antagonized the press of the state. What influence it will have on his political future is problematical. Judging from the sentiments expressed by the editors, he has little hope for further preferment, but time alone can demonstrate to what extent the opposition of the newspapers will affect him. He is a cousin of Senator Matthew S. Quay and is about sixty years old.

When Everybody in East Liverpool Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organism is wrong in its action. That they do this is so easy to prove that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local citizens is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery, resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experience between the years '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of the trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly. They gave me almost immediately relief and warded off the last attack."
